$1.7 Million Earmarked For New County Facility

By WILLIAM S. VANCE
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — A $1.7 million slice of the new $277 million capital improvements bill is being carved out for development of a community college or technical institute in Columbiana County.

This was disclosed Tuesday by Dr. John D. Millett, chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents, who detailed for the first time how the board intends to allocate higher education funds contained in the bill.

THE BILL calls for spending $13 million for community colleges, $17.5 million for technical institutes and $25 million for branch universities.

Columbiana County is among eight scheduled to share the $13 million for community colleges, although the bill does not contain line appropriations for the facilities.

Dr. Millet, appearing before the House Finance Committee, released figures showing intended spending for each institution during the next biennium.

These figures show a $1,750,000 appropriation for Columbiana County, which is expected to have a population of 123,374 by 1980, he said.

"We are building toward 1980 enrollment needs," he explained. "We are endeavoring to provide facilities for at least two years of college work in every county or group of counties having 100,000 population and within 30 miles commuting distance of all population."

HE SAID the Board of Regents considers the three areas —branches, technical institutes and community colleges—"interchangeable."

"We would expect to be able to commit the $55.5 million in these counties for one or the other," he said. "Some don't know yet whether they want a technical institute or a community college."

He added that the board's total commitments in the three areas probably would approach $65 million instead of $55.5 million.

It is important for the board to have more commitments staked out, he said, because some projects may not materialize and others may be developed. In addition, "there will be sizable federal matching grants for these two - year institutuions," he said.

Dr. Millett said the board will determine priority for federal funds, but added:

"I have a feeling a very substantial part of any federal funds coming to Ohio in the next year will go to the Cuyahoga Community College because its priority is so great."

Rep. Ralph E. Fisher, R-Wayne, House finance chairman, said a second and probably final hearing will be held on the bill next week. He indicated he hopes to have it ready for floor action near the end of the week.

County Organization Will Install Trustees

LISBON — A Board of Trustees will be installed during an organization meeting for the proposed Columbiana County Community College Thursday at 6:30 p. m. at Heck's Restaurant in Columbiana.

Oliver H. Payne, superintendent of Lisbon schools, will preside.

Major Battle Shaping Up As Reds Surround Force

Action Hints Broadened Attack Plan

Combat Strategy Appears Carried Into Wider Field

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States apparently has embarked on an expanded attack strategy against the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

This is the significance of the policy decision behind the U.S.-Vietnamese paratrooper strike Tuesday against a Viet Cong jungle stronghold 30 miles north of Saigon.

The operation was recommended by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Saigon, to President Johnson after Westmoreland and Vietnamese military officials agreed it was highly desirable, informants here said. The President approved the strike, according to this information.

The decision appeared to carry U.S. ground combat strategy in Viet Nam beyond the limits of policy so far announced, although a State Department statement three weeks ago could be interpreted to cover offensive moves of this kind.

On June 8 a State Department spokesman said South Vietnamese leaders had been told "American forces would be available for combat support together with Vietnamese forces when and if necessary."

When this declaration of expansion of U.S. war action stirred international attention the White House issued a statement on June 9. The White House said there had been no change in U.S. policy, because the basic mission of ground troops continued to be to guard key bases like the air base at Da Nang.

The White House statement then rephrased the State Department disclosure of changing policy and imposed limitations to emphasize the defensive nature of what was planned.

"If help is requested by the appropriate Vietnamese commander," the White House said, "Gen. Westmoreland has authority within the assigned mission to employ these troops in support of Vietnamese forces faced with aggressive attack when other effective reserves are not available and when, in his judgment, the general military situation urgently requires it."

At that time, three weeks ago, two points were emphasized by officials here. One was that the U.S. Marines and paratroopers would be going into ground combat with the Vietnamese for defensive purposes. The other was that for a time at least each such operation would be subject to approval by President Johnson.

U.S. Plane Shot Down; Two Missing

Large Number Of Government Units Appear Trapped

BULLETIN

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A large government force, hit by a reinforced Viet Cong regiment, appeared to have fought its way to a comparative safety tonight in a major battle 200 miles northeast of Saigon, a U.S. military spokesman reported.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—More than a regiment of Communist guerrillas surrounded hundreds of government troops 200 miles northeast of Saigon and had them under heavy attack late today, a U.S. military spokesman reported.

A U.S. Air Force light spotting plane flew over the area and was shot down in the jungle. The fate of the pilot and his observer, both Americans, was not known, the spokesman said.

The Viet Cong shot down another American plane, a Navy F8 Crusader jet, supporting government troops on a mission 50 miles west of Saigon. The spokesman said the pilot ejected and was picked up uninjured by a U.S. Army helicopter.

Forty-seven Navy jets from the carriers Coral Sea and Oriskany joined in a raid on a North Vietnamese air base at Vinh, 165 miles south of Hanoi. A spokesman said they knocked out the runway, severing it at one end and cratering the rest with direct hits.

In the ground war, the biggest action of the day centered in the highlands midway between Saigon and Da Nang, a strategic air base guarded by U.S. Marines.

It appeared that another major battle was developing.

The government task force, made up of three units of paratroopers and infantrymen, began an operation Tuesday near Cheo Reo.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — After two months of lingering crisis, heated hemispheric debate has failed to dispel a curtain of fog surrounding the issue of Communist potential in the Dominican Republic rebellion.

What are the facts? In a revolutionary situation, facts are difficult to nail down. This is even more the case where Communist operations are involved.

—From evidence of innumberable witnesses, it is clear the Communists took an active part after the revolt exploded April 24. What is not clear is whether they had any role in plotting or sparking the rebellion, or had control of it at any time.

—It is generally agreed from the evidence and official observation that the revolt was launched by a group of disgruntled junior officers against President Donald Reid Cabral's regime. Nobody has accused the 30 or 40 professional military men in the rebel command of being Communist.

—Communist leaders moved swiftly into the situation. Left extremists took part in the early hours and continue to take a part. Even the rebel leaders acknowledge this.

—Early in the crisis, U.S. government sources issued a list of 54 persons identified as Communist leaders in controlling positions in the revolt. This list seemed hastily thrown together. It included names of a few known to have been non-Communist and others who for various reasons could not have had a role. This tended to weaken the contention that the Communists ran the rebel show.

—U.S. intelligence has produced a new list of persons identified as leading Communists in the revolt. This list contains 77 names and omits 11 of those on the original list of 54. The new list is reported to be part of a forthcoming U.S. white paper. Some Washington sources say they think that soon the administration will prove its case to Latin-American satisfaction, and if so, this will help repair the damage to the U.S. image wrought by the unilateral intervention.

The new list, it is known, details in almost every case what each Communist leader was supposed to have done in the first week of the revolt. It identifies many as having had Cuban or Communist bloc training. An accompanying text accuses Castro Cuba of having had close connection with Red operations in the Dominican Republic.

U.S. sources in Santo Domingo contend the Communists moved into control of most of the 20 commando units into which the rebel military organization was divided and thus could block a political settlement.

Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, 32-year-old son of a Trujillo era general and the nominal leader of the revolt, scoffs at this. So does his militia chief, Col. Manuel Ramon Montes Arache. Both are professional officers, as are the 30 or 40 others in the rebel high command.

Col. Montes Arache, examining the original U.S. list of 54, said he saw in the rebel zone only five of those named. U.S. sources insist that 43 on the original list of 54 were seen in

Traffic Light Sought

New Action's Set On Intersection

County Commissioners James Boyd and Frank Wilson have agreed to go directly to the State Highway Department to press for installation of a traffic light at the intersection of State Route 267 and the Y. & O. Rd. in an effort to curb the traffic crashes which have occurred frequently in recent years.

The action came as a result of a special meeting Tuesday night of the Glenmoor volunteer fire department, the St. Clair Development Association and community residents at the fire hall to study the hazardous situation.

The commissioners said they will take all pictures and descriptions they can obtain of car wrecks that have occurred at the intersection in recent years and present them in person to Earl Nelson, head of Division 11 of the State Highway Department in New Philadelphia.

Last night's meeting was prompted by the three crashes at the intersection last week, the worst one coming early Saturday morning when two people were injured seriously in a three-car mishap.

The 35 attending last night's session agreed to hold another special meeting July 20 at the fire hall to discuss the results of the commissioners' meeting with Nelson and to take further action if needed.

Glenmoor residents and organizations maintain that the high speed limits on both roads, coupled with the relatively small stop signs on the Y. & O. Rd., are responsible for many of the accidents.

Moreover, they say that motorists not only crash the stop signs because they don't see them, but many also go through them intentionally, resulting in several severe crashes due to the inability of the speeding cars on Route 267 to get stopped.

Reports from state police accident forms indicate that there are around 125 crashes a year at the intersection. One service station owner near the intersection said he counted 40 in one month.

The Glenmoor residents have made several efforts, including the circulation of two petitions, to get a traffic light installed at the intersection since the early 1950's, but to no avail.

Now, with the recent rash of crashes, plus the increasing amount of traffic, which will mount even more when Route 30 and 7 is closed due to highway construction, they have instituted this new move.

The Glenmoor American Legion, the Parent - Teacher Association, the St. Clair Development Association, the fire department and the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church have announced they are fully in support of the action.

GOP Unable To Combine Fund Efforts

Washburn Selected Acting Director Of Party's Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans may find their national finance chairman and Senate and House campaign committees shaking the same money trees for GOP contributions.

The Republican National Committee was informed at its closing session Tuesday that Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the new finance chairman, had named C. Langorne Washburn as acting director of the party's national finance committee.

Behind the bare announcement that Washburn is taking over this job on a temporary basis lies the story of an unsuccessful effort by Clay and National Chairman Ray C. Bliss to bring all fund-raising activities under Clay's tent.

Bliss said that Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky and Rep. Bob Wilson of California, head of the respective congressional committees, had promised future cooperation on this score. Unmentioned was current resistance to having Clay move in on money-raising campaigns already under way.

Washburn has been serving as executive director of the Republican Congressional Boosters Club.

The House committee has a budget of $900,000 from this source this year and expects to raise it without difficulty. The money will be spent toward trying to elect Republicans to Congress in the 1966 elections.

With money in the bank—but not yet enough—the two com-

Veteran Tops Job Exam For Both Fire And Police

A 24-year-old Air Force veteran who competed in Civil Service Commission tests for fire and police department jobs on successive nights has just one problem today—he must choose between the two.

Dwight Maynard Garvey, 125 W. 2nd St., wound up No. 1 on the eligibility lists for both departments.

P. K. Calhoon, clerk of the commission, said Garvey's feat is a precedent in his experience. He said it may be the first time in history a man topped two job lists of the local commission at the same time.

Garvey was one of two who competed in a test for police department applicants Tuesday night. The other applicant did not score a passing grade.

Garvey went to the top of a three - man list under state law that covers interpolation of the names of successful applicants into existing lists. The other two spots on the list are held by men who scored passing grades in earlier tests — Charles Lee Linkous and Richard H. Pack.

Linkous and Pack were eligible to compete in the new exam last night, but did not, apparently choosing to stand on their former grades.

Calhoon explained the state law on interpolation of applicants with passing grades. The new names are inserted in the list at a point in relation to their grades as compared with the grades of those already on the list.

For instance, if a former list shows a man with a grade of 90 and another with a score of 80 and a new applicant scores 85, he becomes the No. 2 man on the revised list — behind the man with the 90 score and ahead of the man with the grade of 80, Calhoon explained.

By the same process of interpolation, Garvey wound up No. 1 on the fire department test. The No. 2 position is held by James A. Miller, who took the exam previously. In the No. 3 spot is Gary Walter Anderson, 1012 Avondale St., the only other man in the field of five

Election Board Boost Given House Approval

COLUMBUS — The State House of Representatives voted approval Tuesday night, 112-10, to a bill that would raise the salaries of Election Board members in all 88 Ohio Counties.

Sent to the Senate for action, the bill would give a $407-a-year boost to the four members of the Columbiana County Board — from $3,205 to $3,612. The total cost throughout the state is estimated at $116,575.

Columbiana County Election Board members are Carl L. Stacey and Don Gosney, both Columbiana village Democrats, Atty. Charles Pike, Lisbon Republican, and Atty. James McSweeney of Wellsville, also a Republican.

Crews Hunt Survivors Of Boat Sinking

EL ROSARIO, Mex. (AP) — Hopes that four members of a California family might have survived after their cabin cruiser sank were revived today when searchers reported finding footprints, a lifejacket and women's clothing on a deserted beach.

The footprints and other objects were found Tuesday by a search party 45 miles south of here near the spot where a 15-year-old girl crawled from the sea Saturday.

Denise Winter earlier was believed to have been the only survivor in the family of five aboard the 45-foot cabin cruiser that sank off the Baja California coast last weekend.

Searchers for the Warren Winter family of Murrieta, Calif., also reported finding fresh water near the footprints, adding to chances of survival on the barren coast.

Bill Changes Deadline For Buying Auto Tags

COLUMBUS — If the House follows the State Senate's lead, Ohioans will have an extra 15 days to buy new auto license plates in 1966.

The Senate passed, 27-1, and sent to the house a bill which would extend the final registration date from April 1 to April 16. The measure is co-sponsored by Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, St. Clairsville Democrat, who represents the 20th-22nd District, including Columbiana County.

Report Due On Senate's Baker Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's Bobby Baker investigators make public today their report and legislative recommendations.

The Democratic and Republican members have split along party lines on their findings but have agreed on some proposals as safeguards against conflicts of interest by senators and Senate employes.

The politically explosive investigation was launched just after Baker resigned on Oct. 7, 1963, as secretary of the Senate's Democratic majority amid questions raised by Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., and others

Teen-Agers Injured When Auto Wrecks

Three Toronto teen-agers were injured, one seriously, when their car overturned on Route 7 on Flagpole Hill, south of the junction with Route 213, at Yellow Creek Tuesday at 11:55 a.m.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol said the driver was Patricia Parker, 17, daughter of Robert Parker, 1000 Pierce Ave., Toronto.

According to the patrol, she was driving south when she came too close to the divider strip on a curve. She lost control when the left wheels rubbed against the concrete and the car swerved from one lane to the other and back again. It then hit the divider strip and rolled over twice on the highway.

Miss Parker was in "critical" condition today at City Hospital. She suffered a concussion, fractured skull, fractured pelvis, severe facial lacerations and multiple lacerations of the legs and arms.

Miss Charlotte Cich, 17, daughter of Mrs. Violet Cich, 208 N. 7th St., Toronto, was in "fairly good" condition with a fractured shoulder and multiple abrasions of the legs, arms and shoulders.

In the ground war, the biggest action of the day centered in the highlands midway between Saigon and Da Nang, a strategic air base guarded by U.S. Marines.

It appeared that another major battle was developing.

The government task force, made up of three units of paratroopers and infantrymen, began an operation Tuesday near Cheo Reo,

Traffic Light Sought

New Action's Set On Intersection

County Commissioners James Boyd and Frank Wilson have agreed to go directly to the State Highway Department to press for installation of a traffic light at the intersection of State Route 267 and the Y. & O. Rd. in an effort to curb the traffic crashes which have occurred frequently in recent years.

The action came as a result of a special meeting Tuesday night of the Glenmoor volunteer fire department, the St. Clair Development Association and community residents at the fire hall to study the hazardous situation.

The commissioners said they will take all pictures and descriptions they can obtain of car wrecks that have occurred at the intersection in recent years and present them in person to Earl Nelson, head of Division 11 of the State Highway Department in New Philadelphia.

Last night's meeting was prompted by the three crashes at the intersection last week, the worst one coming early Saturday morning when two people were injured seriously in a three-car mishap.

The 35 attending last night's session agreed to hold another special meeting July 20 at the fire hall to discuss the results of the commissioners' meeting with Nelson and to take further action if needed.

Glenmoor residents and organizations maintain that the high speed limits on both roads, coupled with the relatively small stop signs on the Y. & O. Rd., are responsible for many of the accidents.

Moreover, they say that motorists not only crash the stop signs because they don't see them, but many also go through them intentionally, resulting in several severe crashes due to the inability of the speeding cars on Route 267 to get stopped.

Reports from state police accident forms indicate that there are around 125 crashes a year at the intersection. One service station owner near the intersection said he counted 40 in one month.

The Glenmoor residents have made several efforts, including the circulation of two petitions, to get a traffic light installed at the intersection since the early 1950's, but to no avail.

Now, with the recent rash of crashes, plus the increasing amount of traffic, which will mount even more when Route 30 and 7 is closed due to highway construction, they have instituted this new move.

The Glenmoor American Legion, the Parent - Teacher Association, the St. Clair Development Association, the fire department and the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church have announced they are fully in support of the action.

Report Due On Senate's Baker Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's Bobby Baker investigators make public today their report and legislative recommendations.

The Democratic and Republican members have split along party lines on their findings but have agreed on some proposals as safeguards against conflicts of interest by senators and Senate employes.

The politically explosive investigation was launched just after Baker resigned on Oct. 7, 1963, as secretary of the Senate's Democratic majority amid questions raised by Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., and others

GOP Unable To Combine Fund Efforts

Washburn Selected Acting Director Of Party's Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans may find their national finance chairman and Senate and House campaign committees shaking the same money trees for GOP contributions.

The Republican National Committee was informed at its closing session Tuesday that Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the new finance chairman, had named C. Langorne Washburn as acting director of the party's national finance committee.

Behind the bare announcement that Washburn is taking over this job on a temporary basis lies the story of an unsuccessful effort by Clay and National Chairman Ray C. Bliss to bring all fund-raising activities under Clay's tent.

Bliss said that Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky and Rep. Bob Wilson of California, head of the respective congressional committees, had promised future cooperation on this score. Unmentioned was current resistance to having Clay move in on money-raising campaigns already under way.

Washburn has been serving as executive director of the Republican Congressional Boosters Club.

The House committee has a budget of $900,000 from this source this year and expects to raise it without difficulty. The money will be spent toward trying to elect Republicans to Congress in the 1966 elections.

With money in the bank—but not yet enough—the two com-

Teen-Agers Injured When Auto Wrecks

Three Toronto teen-agers were injured, one seriously, when their car overturned on Route 7 on Flagpole Hill, south of the junction with Route 213, at Yellow Creek Tuesday at 11:55 a.m.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol said the driver was Patricia Parker, 17, daughter of Robert Parker, 1000 Pierce Ave., Toronto.

According to the patrol, she was driving south when she came too close to the divider strip on a curve. She lost control when the left wheels rubbed against the concrete and the car swerved from one lane to the other and back again. It then hit the divider strip and rolled over twice on the highway.

Miss Parker was in "critical" condition today at City Hospital. She suffered a concussion, fractured skull, fractured pelvis, severe facial lacerations and multiple lacerations of the legs and arms.

Miss Charlotte Cich, 17, daughter of Mrs. Violet Cich, 208 N. 7th St., Toronto, was in "fairly good" condition with a fractured shoulder and multiple abrasions of the legs, arms and shoulders.

Experts Puzzle Over Activities Of Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — After a week of sluggish activity and downward skid, the stock market has produced two remarkable sessions.

Tuesday, it zoomed up in the morning, fell down at midday and then came roaring back for the biggest advance of the year.

Monday, it suffered the worst loss since Nov. 22, 1963, the day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

Brokers generally were at a loss to explain the activity.

Volume Monday was a vigorous 7.66 million during the sell-off.

Tuesday, volume on the New York Stock Exchange rose to 10.49 million shares, sixth highest in the history of the exchange.

One broker likened the situation to "a case of the measles that has to run its course."

Most of the closing gain was concentrated in the blue chip stocks, representing the nation's largest corporations But not a single stock set a new high price level for the year, while 452 stocks hit new new lows for 1965.

The exchange's ticker tape lagged as much as six minutes behind floor transactions during the morning buying rush.

Jury Says Guilty On Sale Of Beer

LISBON — An all - woman jury deliberated less than a half - hour Tuesday afternoon in returning a verdict of guilty against Janice McDade of selling beer to minors. She is employed as a waitress at Ann's New House Cafe in Wellsville.

The trial began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard and involved two 17-year-old youths picked up by Wellsville police with an alcolohic beverage on their breath.

They informed police the beer had been purchased at the New House Cafe.

Testimony disclosed the youths had been asked their age, informed the waitress they were 18 and that one carried a forged California driver's license.

Judge Buzzard, in charging the jury, pointed out that regardless of whether the youths had lied about their age, if they were served the waitress was guilty of the charge.

Who Gets A Clean Bill?

If the purpose of the U.S. military effort in Viet Nam is to bring the opposition to the conference table for a negotiated peace, it is obvious that the opposition must be identified.

In this strangest of undeclared wars, this never has been done. It is like the puzzle of the Korean War, when the opposition first was identified as North Korean with Russian backing, then as Chinese with North Korean assistance.

The United States so far has identified the opposition in Viet Nam only as North Vietnamese, officially the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam. In a plebiscite held in 1954, Communists gained control of this part of Viet Nam, which thereupon was arrayed against the interim government of South Viet Nam, officially the Republic of Viet Nam.

But with few exceptions, the opposition faced by the United States and South Viet Nam has not been North Viet Nam. It has been the Viet Cong, operating inside South Viet Nam and opposed to the South Vietnamese government. The Viet Cong is not officially connected with the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam.

This is the basis for the contention still made in some places that the United States is embroiled in a civil war in Viet Nam — the government troops of South Viet Nam vs. the guerrillas of the Viet Cong.

It also is the basis for deep misgivings about the futility of any plan for negotiating in the absence of Viet Cong representatives. They alone can speak for the opposition. They are the opposition.

To dismiss them as Communists and therefore not to be regarded as proper representatives for negotiation is unrealistic. Yet this is the current inclination and is, in fact, demanded by spokesmen for the Republican minority in the House and Senate.

The question is who could get a clean bill of health as a non-Communist in negotiations for peace in Viet Nam, if in fact negotiation proves to be anything more than a gesture of hope on the part of the U.S. State Department and White House.

The choice will not be between Communists and non-Communists but between degrees of Communists.

As former British foreign secretary Patrick Gordon Walker summed it up in an address at White Sulphur Springs Monday night, the main thing should be to keep Chinese Communism out of Viet Nam, not to imagine that everything currently labeled "Communist" can be held at arm's length.

The United States has been able to see a difference between Communism in Yugoslavia and Russia. It may have to see a difference in Viet Nam.

A Pledge To Keep

While it's virtually impossible for everybody to be happy in such a situation, Monday's hearing at Lisbon into the Highlandtown Lake problem did much to clear the air as well as clear the way for construction of the dam in the wildlife area.

We feel the commissioners have acted wisely, though they must have done considerable soul-searching before coming up with their final decision.

The Highlandtown residents presented their case well and made it clear they were not opposing the lake as such, but were against the closing of a section of roadway which they felt essential to their every-day normal lives.

In going ahead with the vacating, the commissioners advanced a pledge which is a key to as near a solution satisfactory to all as possible. They have assured opponents of the move that they will work with the Ohio Department of Highways to provide an adequate replacement for the affected road.

It's a pledge that must be kept in fairness to the people directly involved.

What Makes A Horse Skittish?

Market observers found nothing in the news to explain Monday's wave of stock market selling, the Associated Press reported.

The steepest loss in paper values since the assassination of President Kennedy had no visible explanation.

A behavior pattern that had momentous consequences in the nation's key financial district could no more be explained rationally than a school girl's giggles.

A sudden slump in some of the most dependable securities in the world was as mysterious to market analysts as the sudden movement of a skittish horse, which can shy away from a scrap of paper, its own shadow, a beam of light, or nothing at all.

This has been the dilemma of the stock market for all who have tried to understand its behavior. It does not lend itself to rational explanations.

It can react predictably, as it does when a president is assassinated and there is an interval of doubt and unrest.

Or it can react unpredictably, as it does when an unfounded rumor sets off a flurry of selling or buying. Experts and investigators are still trying to find who started the rumor about a presidential heart attack that marked the beginning of the market's current erratic behavior.

This, too, is part of the dilemma about stock market behavior. How susceptible is it to manipulation by interests that want to fish in troubled waters?

In the game of bulls and bears, the amateurs want to behave like bulls. Only the coolest professionals understand how to play bear. And a few days ago, one of the coolest professionals of the 20th century, Bernard M. Baruch, died, full of years and wisdom. He made a fortune while he was still a young man by buying low and selling high. He took advantage of human skittishness.

What makes the stock market slide? What makes a horse skittish? Why does a school girl giggle? Who knows?

Order On The Floor!

We doubt that Gen. Eisenhower will get more than a half-polite hearing for his plea to reform Republican national conventions.

The same reception awaits any proposal that may be made to reform the Democratic conventions.

Yet, everybody who has looked objectively at the exhibitions of adult delinquency can agree they are rowdy. So why won't they be reformed?

Because the people who make them possible like them rowdy. If it were not so, they wouldn't have allowed them to get that way.

They like the uninhibited fun, the milling around that plays into the hands of the string-pullers, a rowdy - dow atmosphere and the tingling excitement of being part of something that doesn't seem to be cut and dried even when it is.

They paid good money to have a good time, and nobody ever had a good time sitting with folded hands in a funeral parlor.

The more noise, confusion, pushing, bantering, bickering, string-pulling, bartering, trading, chanting, demonstrating for good old Joe Blow, shouting and arm-waving the better.

To a visitor who never saw a convention, it must look like a free-for-all in a waterfront dive.

But this is the way it's done here. If the prissy prudes ever changed it, their names would be cursed for generations to come. They might as well hit Independence Hall with an iron ball.

Granted, national conventions are atrocious, inefficient, often in bad taste, take too much time and cost too much money.

So what else is new? Oh yes, about kicking reporters off the floor and into the balcony . . . how about that?

Doesn't Gen. Eisenhower realize that the candidates and string-pullers might as well stay home if they had no reporters handy to swing and sway opinion?

How does Gen. Eisenhower think he was nominated back there in 1952 — by the Blue Fairy? The Easter Bunny? Or by string-pullers who pulled every string they could get their hands on to stop Ohio Sen. Robert A. Taft?

The most non-complacent thing I do, sociologically speaking, is to wonder about the problems of the people who live in the thousands of houses, apartments and shacks I pass on my way to and from work. You name the trouble, they have it.

I try hard to believe the stock market is an index to anything more substantial than the herd antics of human beings who think they have found a way to beat the odds that cause horse players to die broke, as the late Damon Runyon bluntly phrased it.

Cleveland Amory called that White House cultural binge a post-Easter egghead roll—and it struck me so funny I sputtered breakfast egg all over the current edition of Saturday Review. Yes, I read magazines at the breakfast table. Doesn't everybody?

The Fourth of July has been safe and sane so long as one remembers when fireworks used to be a national menace. So we replaced something that represented a celebration with traffic jams, highway fatalities and the other trappings of a modern holiday weekend. Are we safer . . . saner?

People audibly upset about diverting potential GOP contributions into ultra-conservative channels aren't discussing an academic question. Millions of dollars from prime sources of political largesse are involved, including well-heeled foundations set up by families and corporations.

My thought on watching a televised performance by football players in June: Football does not have to be an autumnal sport and never would have been thought of in that way if it had not been for the curious custom of starting the school year in September, because football was solely a college sport in the old days.

Why The Strikes? McClellan Asks

By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

There have been more strikes called at the Moon Port than in a no-hit ball game. The Senate, irritated, wants to know why. The White House, disturbed, also wants to know why—and how much those feuds are costing in time and money.

The national labor chiefs are more image - conscious. They are aware of the urgency to get scientists - astronauts on the moon before they have to go through Russian passport control on that satellite too. But these national labor leaders appear to have lost control of their space operations' locals.

Typical is the most recent labor blast-off. Some 60 members of a stagehands' union slowed critical work at the Cape Kennedy - Merritt Island, complex—though their own work appears to be the least vital of that on the base.

THEY COULD do this because they know the nature of the "boomers" craftsmen who follow lucrative construction operations around the country. A "boomer" comes from another part of the land. He puts in his union card. He gets a whopping wage. He lavishes in overtime. And he'll turn back from any Cape Kennedy gate at the first sight of the dim outline of a man carrying a placard—even if it advertises a hamburger joint.

In effect, this is what happened June 22. Hundreds of skilled men arriving for work saw what appeared to be pickets at the gates and drove back home. Had they read the signs, they'd have observed that the scripture said this was no strike, just protest picketing, informational picketing, but no strike.

The pickets were thrown up by Local 780, International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage-Employes Union (IATSE). They have been in tough negotiations for some 18 months with the McGregor-Werner Co., a subcontractor for NASA.

THEIR WELL-PAID contribution to the moon project is the copying of some manuals, blueprints and press releases and handling some microfilming. They are not in photography directly. Much of that is handled by RCA and Technicolor.

Some time ago the President's Missile Sites Labor Commission, a knowledgeable and respected group of prominent citizenry, got into the controversy by calling both sides to its industrial subcommittee. The company made a substantial wage increase offer. The local union, whose headquarters is Chicago, turned it down.

Instead the local union people decided to ask for strike authorization from IATSE chief Dick Walsh in New York.

Walsh said no. The Missile Sites group attempted to reach the local by all means of modern communication. The commission might as well have sent out Indian smoke signals. Then on Wednesday the local's members set up real pickets at all five Cape gates.

THIS TIME some 3,000 craftsmen turned homeward, stalling vital Apollo project and experimental work. So it went the next day, which after all was Thursday, meaning Friday and the weekend could not be far behind. So thousands again stayed off the job, though their leaders have given the President a flat no-strike pledge.

This angered Dick Walsh, though he long ago developed a high boiling point and does not often let off steam. He told the leaders of 18 national construction unions the strike was unauthorized and their local followers need not heed the stagehands' picket line. For a labor leader this is a daring thing to do.

Word went down the line. But many of the men stayed out.

This is the kind of thing Sen. McClellan's men are surveying. Their report hardly will make local labor—and therefore all labor—look like a troop of Eagle Scouts. In 1961, similar probers returned from Cape Canaveral with unpleasant news of the strike cost. McClellan told the then secretary of labor, Arthur Goldberg, he would give the government a long try at voluntary mediation. But now he is determined to introduce some tough no-strike laws covering space bases.

If he succeeds, and labor leaders want to know who are responsible for harsh restrictions, let them glance at the looking glass—into which many of them, like Alice, appear to have toppled.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Over the past 15 years a great effort has been made to beautify Thompson Park and to expand its facilities.

In keeping with the same, we now have five miles of paved road, innumerable individual places to cook meals, as well as three pavilions. We now have three tennis courts, a basketball court, two baseball fields, as well as many other facilities. The swimming pool has two supervisors, Mr. McNea and Mr. Chan, to insure safety and to coordinate a sports program.

This has all been done for the benefit of the citizens of East Liverpool and surrounding territory.

It is very disheartening to find that a certain amount of vandals, who destroy property merely to destroy it and get some perverted sense of satisfaction from the same, caused a considerable amount of damage last week.

The board has resolved that if and when these person or persons are apprehended that it will insist upon full prosecution and a jail sentence.

The board would like to appeal to all citizens to report any acts of vandalism and the person or persons who are causing the same if known. This park belongs to the community and is for the community's use and pleasure. Anyone who willfully and maliciously destroys this property reduces the use of the same by the community. Therefore, every citizen is interested to stop this.

Slow Boil In Berlin

By Richard Spong

East Germans Stir Things Up

The East Germans seem bent on bringing the Berlin crisis to a slow boil again. Rates for freight to and from West Germany go up as of July 1. There are reports that autobahn tolls will be raised. Barge canal permits, previously covered by a four-power agreement, were rescinded on June 26.

East German helicopter flights over West Berlin air space have drawn formal protests from the Western Allies. Britain on June 25 sent Soviet forces in East Germany a strong note about the violation of West German air space by "Soviet Bloc" (East German) fighter craft and military helicopters.

The new East German foreign minister, Otto Winzer, insists that the Western powers negotiate with East Germany a new agreement covering air traffic to West Berlin. Communist jets have been breaking the sound barrier over Berlin, a typical harassment tactic.

EAST GERMANY has been stalling on renewal of a pass agreement whereby West Berliners at stated times may visit relatives in East Berlin. Soviet and East German troops have been concentrated here and there on strategic highways.

How serious are these renewed pressures? Barge traffic takes care of the bulk of goods moving between Berlin and the West. Anywhere from 100 to 200 barges a day use the canals. But the East Germans are now reported simply to be selling barge operators new permits issued by the Pankow government.

Winzer, the new foreign minister, has a reputation as a tough and aggressive diplomat. He is generally regarded as East Germany's Berlin expert. But there is no outward sign that his advancement is significant; his former chief, Lothar Bolz, has suffered heart trouble for some time.

If the recent East German moves form a pattern, they seem to indicate a renewed push to legitimatize the East German regime. Winzer charges the West with "crude disregard" for East German sovereignty.

EVERYWHERE the emphasis is on direct negotiations between Western officials and the East Germans. But there is no evidence — so far — that the Soviet overlords have given the East Germans any new power dispensation.

The Daily Telegraph of London notes that Russia has answered Western protests "in such a way as to make it clear that Russia acknowledges East German sovereignty over Berlin." The newspaper asserts: "The renewed squeezing of Berlin is intended to achieve more status for the Ulbricht regime. It craves recognition and direct talks as the price of relaxation, but incurs distinct risks for all in doing so."

For the West Germans the new heat under the Berlin pressure cooker is especially embarrassing with national elections only 12 weeks off. Chancellor Ludwig Erhard at a meeting of leaders of all West German parties on June 24 appealed for unity against Communist "provocation." Erhard's Christian Democratic Union in the 1961 elections lost its over-all majority as a result of its inadequate response to the erection of the Berlin Wall.

A crisis in Berlin is, of course, always serious. Our vulnerable communications there make even the slightest warming move a present danger.

Convention Reform

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Political scientists consider delegates to political conventions an elite or superior group in this society but every four years, when they get loose in a hall, they produce bedlam.

Americans have been listening to it ever since radio began broadcasting conventions in 1924 and looking at it ever since television moved in.

And ever since 1924 leaders of both parties have been under pressure to shorten the conventions or at least make them more adult.

Many bills have been offered in Congress to change the convention system or abolish it altogether and let voters pick their candidates in party primaries. These discontents never got anywhere.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is just one of many reconciled to conventions for a long time even though, as he says, Americans are "horrified" by what they look at. He thinks maybe something could be done.

TALKING TO Republicans Monday, he urged convention reforms, particularly since the next conventions will be televised overseas.

For one thing, he wants the floor demonstrations limited to five minutes although it's hard to see what purpose they serve at all except to let the often-bewildered delegates let off steam.

Eisenhower wants no one on the floor except delegates, which would be an improvement since a lot of nondelegates seem to get loose in the spontaneously arranged shouting, banner-waving floor parades.

Some years ago one of the most memorable American politicians, James A. Farley, in an interview with U.S. News and World Report, recalled the 1932 Democratic convention where he engineered Franklin D. Roosevelt's nomination.

There was a lot of "hoopla" for others but Farley dryly remarked he didn't think it helped them much.

This reminded him of a conversation with Maryland's Gov. Albert C. Ritchie, after Ritchie's name had been put in nomination and a big demonstration started.

"Bert, that's a great reception for you," Farley said he told Ritchie. He said Ritchie, unimpressed by all the shouting for Ritchie, replied: "Unfortunately, there's not a single delegate in the whole demonstration."

Eisenhower has other reforms in mind, like burly sergeants-at-arms to keep order, a chairman with dictatorial power, and all news reporters kept off the floor.

THE FORMER president, seeing the convention as a "picture of confusion, noise, impossible deportment," complained about the indifference of delegates toward subjects discussed from the platform.

He could have gone a little further and suggested perhaps the speakers themselves are the primary cause of the indifference they create. Of all the corny speeches heard in any four-year period the greatest concentration comes at political conventions.

It has been suggested before that the speeches could be limited, with profit for all, to one by the chairman or a prominent leader and acceptance speeches by the candidates chosen.

Political scientists look on delegates as a high type. One of them, James MacGregor Burns, biographer of Roosevelt and John F. Kennedy and head of the political science department at Williams College, wrote five years ago at the time of the 1960 convention:

"In education, achievement and experience the delegates are a superior group."

Another, Aaron Wildavsky of the University of California, considers convention delegates "a political elite who differ from ordinary voters in significant ways." For instance, he says they're more highly educated.

Who Gets A Clean Bill?

If the purpose of the U.S. military effort in Viet Nam is to bring the opposition to the conference table for a negotiated peace, it is obvious that the opposition must be identified.

In this strangest of undeclared wars, this never has been done. It is like the puzzle of the Korean War, when the opposition first was identified as North Korean with Russian backing, then as Chinese with North Korean assistance.

The United States so far has identified the opposition in Viet Nam only as North Vietnamese, officially the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam. In a plebiscite held in 1954, Communists gained control of this part of Viet Nam, which thereupon was arrayed against the interim government of South Viet Nam, officially the Republic of Viet Nam.

But with few exceptions, the opposition faced by the United States and South Viet Nam has not been North Viet Nam. It has been the Viet Cong, operating inside South Viet Nam and opposed to the South Vietnamese government. The Viet Cong is not officially connected with the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam.

This is the basis for the contention still made in some places that the United States is embroiled in a civil war in Viet Nam — the government troops of South Viet Nam vs. the guerrillas of the Viet Cong.

It also is the basis for deep misgivings about the futility of any plan for negotiating in the absence of Viet Cong representatives. They alone can speak for the opposition. They are the opposition.

To dismiss them as Communists and therefore not to be regarded as proper representatives for negotiation is unrealistic. Yet this is the current inclination and is, in fact, demanded by spokesmen for the Republican minority in the House and Senate.

The question is who could get a clean bill of health as a non-Communist in negotiations for peace in Viet Nam, if in fact negotiation proves to be anything more than a gesture of hope on the part of the U.S. State Department and White House.

The choice will not be between Communists and non-Communists but between degrees of Communists.

As former British foreign secretary Patrick Gordon Walker summed it up in an address at White Sulphur Springs Monday night, the main thing should be to keep Chinese Communism out of Viet Nam, not to imagine that everything currently labeled "Communist" can be held at arm's length.

The United States has been able to see a difference between Communism in Yugoslavia and Russia. It may have to see a difference in Viet Nam.

This has all been done for the benefit of the citizens of East Liverpool and surrounding territory.

It is very disheartening to find that a certain amount of vandals, who destroy property merely to destroy it and get some perverted sense of satisfaction from the same, caused a considerable amount of damage last week.

The board has resolved that if and when these person or persons are apprehended that it will insist upon full prosecution and a jail sentence.

The board would like to appeal to all citizens to report any acts of vandalism and the person or persons who are causing the same if known. This park belongs to the community and is for the community's use and pleasure. Anyone who willfully and maliciously destroys this property reduces the use of the same by the community. Therefore, every citizen is interested to stop this.

Slow Boil In Berlin

By Richard Spong

East Germans Stir Things Up

The East Germans seem bent on bringing the Berlin crisis to a slow boil again. Rates for freight to and from West Germany go up as of July 1. There are reports that autobahn tolls will be raised. Barge canal permits, previously covered by a four-power agreement, were rescinded on June 26.

East German helicopter flights over West Berlin air space have drawn formal protests from the Western Allies. Britain on June 25 sent Soviet forces in East Germany a strong note about the violation of West German air space by "Soviet Bloc" (East German) fighter craft and military helicopters.

The new East German foreign minister, Otto Winzer, insists that the Western powers negotiate with East Germany a new agreement covering air traffic to West Berlin. Communist jets have been breaking the sound barrier over Berlin, a typical harassment tactic.

EAST GERMANY has been stalling on renewal of a pass agreement whereby West Berliners at stated times may visit relatives in East Berlin. Soviet and East German troops have been concentrated here and there on strategic highways.

How serious are these renewed pressures? Barge traffic takes care of the bulk of goods moving between Berlin and the West. Anywhere from 100 to 200 barges a day use the canals. But the East Germans are now reported simply to be selling barge operators new permits issued by the Pankow government.

Winzer, the new foreign minister, has a reputation as a tough and aggressive diplomat. He is generally regarded as East Germany's Berlin expert. But there is no outward sign that his advancement is significant; his former chief, Lothar Bolz, has suffered heart trouble for some time.

If the recent East German moves form a pattern, they seem to indicate a renewed push to legitimatize the East German regime. Winzer charges the West with "crude disregard" for East German sovereignty.

EVERYWHERE the emphasis is on direct negotiations between Western officials and the East Germans. But there is no evidence — so far — that the Soviet overlords have given the East Germans any new power dispensation.

The Daily Telegraph of London notes that Russia has answered Western protests "in such a way as to make it clear that Russia acknowledges East German sovereignty over Berlin." The newspaper asserts: "The renewed squeezing of Berlin is intended to achieve more status for the Ulbricht regime. It craves recognition and direct talks as the price of relaxation, but incurs distinct risks for all in doing so."

For the West Germans the new heat under the Berlin pressure cooker is especially embarrassing with national elections only 12 weeks off. Chancellor Ludwig Erhard at a meeting of leaders of all West German parties on June 24 appealed for unity against Communist "provocation." Erhard's Christian Democratic Union in the 1961 elections lost its over-all majority as a result of its inadequate response to the erection of the Berlin Wall.

A crisis in Berlin is, of course, always serious. Our vulnerable communications there make even the slightest warming move a present danger.

Convention Reform

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Political scientists consider delegates to political conventions an elite or superior group in this society but every four years, when they get loose in a hall, they produce bedlam.

Americans have been listening to it ever since radio began broadcasting conventions in 1924 and looking at it ever since television moved in.

And ever since 1924 leaders of both parties have been under pressure to shorten the conventions or at least make them more adult.

Many bills have been offered in Congress to change the convention system or abolish it altogether and let voters pick their candidates in party primaries. These discontents never got anywhere.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is just one of many reconciled to conventions for a long time even though, as he says, Americans are "horrified" by what they look at. He thinks maybe something could be done.

TALKING TO Republicans Monday, he urged convention reforms, particularly since the next conventions will be televised overseas.

For one thing, he wants the floor demonstrations limited to five minutes although it's hard to see what purpose they serve at all except to let the often-bewildered delegates let off steam.

Eisenhower wants no one on the floor except delegates, which would be an improvement since a lot of nondelegates seem to get loose in the spontaneously arranged shouting, banner-waving floor parades.

Some years ago one of the most memorable American politicians, James A. Farley, in an interview with U.S. News and World Report, recalled the 1932 Democratic convention where he engineered Franklin D. Roosevelt's nomination.

There was a lot of "hoopla" for others but Farley dryly remarked he didn't think it helped them much.

This reminded him of a conversation with Maryland's Gov. Albert C. Ritchie, after Ritchie's name had been put in nomination and a big demonstration started.

"Bert, that's a great reception for you," Farley said he told Ritchie. He said Ritchie, unimpressed by all the shouting for Ritchie, replied: "Unfortunately, there's not a single delegate in the whole demonstration."

Eisenhower has other reforms in mind, like burly sergeants-at-arms to keep order, a chairman with dictatorial power, and all news reporters kept off the floor.

THE FORMER president, seeing the convention as a "picture of confusion, noise, impossible deportment," complained about the indifference of delegates toward subjects discussed from the platform.

He could have gone a little further and suggested perhaps the speakers themselves are the primary cause of the indifference they create. Of all the corny speeches heard in any four-year period the greatest concentration comes at political conventions.

It has been suggested before that the speeches could be limited, with profit for all, to one by the chairman or a prominent leader and acceptance speeches by the candidates chosen.

Political scientists look on delegates as a high type. One of them, James MacGregor Burns, biographer of Roosevelt and John F. Kennedy and head of the political science department at Williams College, wrote five years ago at the time of the 1960 convention:

"In education, achievement and experience the delegates are a superior group."

Another, Aaron Wildavsky of the University of California, considers convention delegates "a political elite who differ from ordinary voters in significant ways." For instance, he says they're more highly educated.

Activities Set At Play Areas

Hank Kuzma, director of the Midland recreation program, said treasure hunts have been scheduled for 6:30 Friday at each of the playgrounds there, with a band concert to follow at 7:30 at the 10th St. playground.

Kuzma said a basketball league will begin play at the playgrounds on July 6. All boys interested should give his name, grade and age to any of the playground instructors. He said plans call for three separate leagues. Senior College Division, ages 15 and up; Junior High League, ages 12, 13 and 14, and Midget League, ages six through 11. John Wilson and Ed Olkowski will be in charge of the program.

Future plans also call for each playground to have a softball team, he said, for boys ages 8-12.

Adult volleyball is currently being held at the 7th St. playground and horseshoe pits are expected to be ready this week at all of the playgrounds.

Motorist's Trial Slated On Friday

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set a hearing Friday at 9 a. m. for a 27-year-old East End man arrested at 2:24 this morning on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

William Howard Copestick, 871 Valley Ave., was cited at 5th and Market Sts. by Patrolman J. W. Buckley. Copestick also was charged with violation of a state law that requires the holder's signature on an operator's permit.

Copestick did not enter a plea when taken before the court this morning. He asked a continuance to allow him time to obtain counsel. The court granted the request and set his appearance bond at $500.

The longest run of any Broadway show was "Life With Father," which closed at the end of 1947 after 3,224 performances.

the zone in the past few weeks. They say four others were captured and jailed, one was killed, five were spotted outside the Dominican capital, and all of them were members of the Castroist-dominated 14th of June Movement.

U.S. intelligence now puts the story together this way:

When the revolt erupted Saturday, April 24, the junior officers seized the 27th of February military camp and its arms. Civilians seized two radio stations in the capital and announced the overthrow of President Reid. Government forces later took back the stations, but the rebels already had called on civilians to join the rebellion in the streets.

By Sunday, all three Communist factions were active: the Moscow-line Popular Socialist Party—PSP, the violence-minded Popular Dominican Party — MPD, and the 14th of June Movement, which began six years ago as a non-Communist organization but was heavily infiltrated later by Castroists.

The U.S. account says that in the first hours, among the most active Communists were Narcisco Isa Conde, PSP central committee member; Diomedes Mercedes Batista, PSP member identified as a commuter to Havana, and Amin Abel Hasbun, of the 14th of June Movement.

The situation was wildly confused by Sunday. President Reid lost the support of senior officers, resigned and went into hiding. At this moment, U.S. sources say, armed PSP members harangued crowds at Independence Park downtown and shouted for violence.

Somebody convinced the rebel leaders they should distribute the captured arms to civilians. The Communists had been shouting the slogan: "Arms to the working class."

Several thousand civilians got machine guns, grenades, fire bombs and other lethal weapons. U.S. intelligence says a truck owned by Buenaventura Johnson Pimentel, a PSP central committee member, transported arms to the rebel zone, that his home was used to store arms, that machine guns were mounted on his roof and that his house was the meeting place for 50 members of the Communist strategy command.

The account says Communist leaders played a leading part in distributing arms, sometimes controlling the distribution. Other Communists — identified by name — incited mobs to destroy and burn, to kill police, to loot stores and homes, and were responsible for appeals to the rest of the country to demand arms for civilians and organization of "people's combat units," the report says.

The first U.S Marine landing April 28, the fourth day of the revolt, was announced as protection for U.S. lives. The massive miliatry landings thereafter were to counter an assumed Communist threat to seize the island.

The U.S. case, which soon may be spread publicly and in detail on the record, is that there was much evidence of Cuban and Communist involvement in Santo Domingo, that Communists were in a position to assert control and that they threatened to set up a new Red base in the Western Hemisphere.

Agreement Set In Loblaw Fight

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — An undisclosed agreement between three factions at the strikebound Loblaw grocery chain warehouse here will allow unhindered distribution of goods.

The agreement was reached Tuesday in the chambers of Mahoning County Common Pleas Court Judge David G. Jenkins.

An injunction suit had been filed earlier in the day by the National Tea Co., owner of the Loblaw chain, charging that threats, intimidation and force were being used to halt distribution of food.

Judge Jenkins said the injunction suit still is active and can be pursued if the out-of - court settlement is not adhered to.

Attorneys for Teamsters Local 377 said the strike is not sanctioned by the union. He said the dispute is more with the J. B. McNicholas Co., a trucking firm, than with the food chain itself.

Nonpartisan Aspirant Total Increases To 42

The number of nonpartisan candidates entered for the Nov. 2 general election rose to 42 today after two men filed with the County Election Board to seek Fairfield Township trustee posts.

Dozens more are expected before the filing deadline in August. The board listed a total of 284 nonpartisan candidates in advance of the 1961 general election. In 1963, the total was 184.

the zone in the past few weeks. They say four others were captured and jailed, one was killed, five were spotted outside the Dominican capital, and all of them were members of the Castroist-dominated 14th of June Movement.

U.S. intelligence now puts the story together this way:

When the revolt erupted Saturday, April 24, the junior officers seized the 27th of February military camp and its arms. Civilians seized two radio stations in the capital and announced the overthrow of President Reid. Government forces later took back the stations, but the rebels already had called on civilians to join the rebellion in the streets.

By Sunday, all three Communist factions were active: the Moscow-line Popular Socialist Party—PSP, the violence-minded Popular Dominican Party — MPD, and the 14th of June Movement, which began six years ago as a non-Communist organization but was heavily infiltrated later by Castroists.

The U.S. account says that in the first hours, among the most active Communists were Narcisco Isa Conde, PSP central committee member; Diomedes Mercedes Batista, PSP member identified as a commuter to Havana, and Amin Abel Hasbun, of the 14th of June Movement.

The situation was wildly confused by Sunday. President Reid lost the support of senior officers, resigned and went into hiding. At this moment, U.S. sources say, armed PSP members harangued crowds at Independence Park downtown and shouted for violence.

Somebody convinced the rebel leaders they should distribute the captured arms to civilians. The Communists had been shouting the slogan: "Arms to the working class."

Several thousand civilians got machine guns, grenades, fire bombs and other lethal weapons. U.S. intelligence says a truck owned by Buenaventura Johnson Pimentel, a PSP central committee member, transported arms to the rebel zone, that his home was used to store arms, that machine guns were mounted on his roof and that his house was the meeting place for 50 members of the Communist strategy command.

The account says Communist leaders played a leading part in distributing arms, sometimes controlling the distribution. Other Communists — identified by name — incited mobs to destroy and burn, to kill police, to loot stores and homes, and were responsible for appeals to the rest of the country to demand arms for civilians and organization of "people's combat units," the report says.

The first U.S Marine landing April 28, the fourth day of the revolt, was announced as protection for U.S. lives. The massive miliatry landings thereafter were to counter an assumed Communist threat to seize the island.

The U.S. case, which soon may be spread publicly and in detail on the record, is that there was much evidence of Cuban and Communist involvement in Santo Domingo, that Communists were in a position to assert control and that they threatened to set up a new Red base in the Western Hemisphere.

Job Exams

who scored a passing grade last night.

Anderson is a son of Dave Anderson, retired assistant fire chief. The fire department test was held Monday night and the papers were graded Tuesday night.

Each of the successful applicants in the new tests will be sent forms and asked to take physical examinations. The names of those who pass the physicals will be certified to Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey for appointment.

There are two vacancies at present on the fire department and one on the police department. In each instance, the jobs pay $400 monthly for the first six months and then advance to $440.

The No. 1 man on both lists is a brother of Kent Garvey, who served on the police force here and then resigned to become a deputy of Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan.

Garvey, discharged in March after four years in the Air Force, is an employe of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. Married, he is the father of three.

Glassmaking was a major industry of antiquity.

Agreement Set In Loblaw Fight

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — An undisclosed agreement between three factions at the strikebound Loblaw grocery chain warehouse here will allow unhindered distribution of goods.

The agreement was reached Tuesday in the chambers of Mahoning County Common Pleas Court Judge David G. Jenkins.

An injunction suit had been filed earlier in the day by the National Tea Co., owner of the Loblaw chain, charging that threats, intimidation and force were being used to halt distribution of food.

Judge Jenkins said the injunction suit still is active and can be pursued if the out-of - court settlement is not adhered to.

Attorneys for Teamsters Local 377 said the strike is not sanctioned by the union. He said the dispute is more with the J. B. McNicholas Co., a trucking firm, than with the food chain itself.

Nonpartisan Aspirant Total Increases To 42

The number of nonpartisan candidates entered for the Nov. 2 general election rose to 42 today after two men filed with the County Election Board to seek Fairfield Township trustee posts.

They are Steve Zarnosky of Columbiana R.D. 2 and W. Ralph Rupert of New Waterford R.D. 1.

Dozens more are expected before the filing deadline in August. The board listed a total of 284 nonpartisan candidates in advance of the 1961 general election. In 1963, the total was 184.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Little Friends: To remove the blackened starch on my iron? I took a washcloth made of terry, dipped it in some plain old vinegar from my kitchen, and rubbed the bottom of the iron gently for a few minutes.

Then I picked up a dry soap-filled steel wool pad and gently wiped the bottom of the iron with it. The most amazing thing happened.

Do you know that all of that brown "goop" came off? It took me less than two minutes to completely clean this iron. My iron was cold when I used this procedure.

Those of you who get starch on the bottom of your irons might try this method.

Also, while you are cleaning the bottom of the iron, do look on the side of it and see if you have any brown residue there, too. Use the same method on the side of the iron.

Surely prevents brown streaks on clothes . . . ugh.

DEAR HELOISE: Ever open a new bottle of catsup, and after whacking it on the bottom a few times . . . it gives a big "glug", and the catsup shoots out — but not where you want it?

Next time, take the cap off the bottle, stick a drinking straw down to the bottom of the bottle, remove the straw, and the catsup will pour easily, right where you want it!

DEAR HELOISE: A good many people buy the four-ounce party snacks. Instead of throwing away the little aluminum pans, save them and give to small children for use as paint pans when using water for a water coloring brush.

If you are careful not to break the small, flat top, you can put a small hole in the center large enough for the brush. Close the lid. It prevents spilling the water.

MABEL SALSER.

DEAR HELOISE: I store my all-purpose vinegar in a clean well-rinsed bleach bottle, along with my laundry supplies.

There are many steps saved between washing machine and food cupboard. And, since the bleach bottles are plastic, there is no danger of breakage if the bottle slips out of my wet or soapy hands.

Early Pay Day Slated For City's Employes

City employes' pay checks for the last half of June will be issued Saturday between 9 a. m. and noon, three days ahead of schedule because of the long holiday weekend, Auditor Lawrence Zollinger and Treasurer Bert A. Dawson said today.

The early pay day is dependent upon all departmental payrolls being received in time for the computations to be made, the officials said, but they added that most of the payrolls already have been received.

Today is the end of the payroll period. The pay for the last half of the month is not issued normally until the fifth day of the following month. Dawson and Zollinger said the decision for the early pay day was made primarily because it will assure employes' families funds for holiday trips and outings.

Last year major fires in the U. S. cost $318,500,000. The record high cost was in 1960 when a $325 million bite out of American pockets was taken by major fires.

Kitchen arithmetic: you can add ½ to 1 cup of grated cheese to 1 cup of medium white sauce. One cup of lightly-packed grated cheese is the equivalent of ¼ pound.

TAKE NO CHANCES WITH YOUR EYES

Most people do not give their eyes the best possible care. To further complicate the danger, some unscrupulous promoters offer eye products that delay proper treatment, even though causing no immediate harm. Be wary of mail-order medicine men.

Don't be misled by claims that "magic" salves or drops will dissolve cataracts. You ultimately save no money when getting improperly fitted glasses by mail. Depend on your local licensed supplier. And, if your eyes need treatment let no one but a physician tell you what to do.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

TAKE NO CHANCES WITH YOUR EYES

Most people do not give their eyes the best possible care. To further complicate the danger, some unscrupulous promoters offer eye products that delay proper treatment, even though causing no immediate harm. Be wary of mail-order medicine men.

Don't be misled by claims that "magic" salves or drops will dissolve cataracts. You ultimately save no money when getting improperly fitted glasses by mail. Depend on your local licensed supplier. And, if your eyes need treatment let no one but a physician tell you what to do.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: When we moved to Phoenix from Miami the women I met were very cool. Not one woman seemed interested in getting to know me better. I didn't even get the ordinary courtesies shown to new neighbors — until they met my husband. Then suddenly I became very popular.

If you could see my husband you'd understand. He is 6 feet 1, has dark wavy hair, bedroom eyes and could pass for Peter O'Toole. I must be fair and tell you that he thoroughly enjoyed being pursued although I doubt that anything ever came of it.

Now that we have moved from Phoenix to a suburb in Connecticut, the same thing is happening again.

I must say, however, that these Connecticut suburban types are more brazen than the Phoenix women. Last night one woman followed him into the kitchen when he went to get ice cubes. Later that same woman almost broke her leg getting in line next to him at the buffet supper. (All this right under my nose.)

I'm tired of being quiet and considered mousy and stupid. What do you suggest I do to let them know I know? — EX-DUMMY.

Dear Ex: What do you hope to accomplish? Obviously any woman who would follow your husband into the kitchen and "right under your nose" doesn't care whether you know or not.

My advice is to maintain your dignity and keep quiet. You're one up in any event—you've got the man.

No Nooz—Good Nuz

Dear Ann: I'm a Chicagoan who is stationed at Ft. Hood, Tex. Your answer will settle a small civil war in our barracks.

We have guys in our outfit who hail from all parts of the country. The fellows from New York and Texas pronounce the letters "u" and "ew" as if there was a "Y" in front. It comes out "you." For example, they say "Nyoo York" and "nyoospaper." The Midwesterners and the West Coast guys say "Noo York" and "noozpaper."

The words "produce," "consume" and "student" get the same treatment from the Texans and New Yorkers. They put a little "y" sound in. We notice that Chet Huntley says, "NBC Nyoos, Nyoo York" and David Brinkley says, "NBC. Nooz, Washington."

Can you tell us which is correct?—HOOD GANG.

Dear Gang: I have checked four dictionaries. No two agree.

The best answer to your question is in Fowler's "Modern English Usage." It says, "We deserve not praise but censure, if we decline to accept the popular pronunciation of popular words." This means there is no right or wrong, so imitate the natives.

Hasty Conclusion

Dear Ann: I need to know something but I'm afraid to ask questions for fear of giving the wrong impression.

A relative of mine was admitted to a hospital last week. The doctor ordered blood tests made at once. I asked the nurse why this had to be done. She said, "It is routine."

I have a hunch they were checking to learn if the patient has a venereal disease. What else could it be? Naturally I was shocked and upset. Please print my letter and your answer. — LADY NEEDING PEACE OF MIND.

Dear Needing: A blood test is routine for all pateints who enter a hospital.

An analysis of a patient's blood can reveal valuable information about his general condition. Moreover, the physician must know the blood type of the patient in case a transfusion is needed. Don't jump to any hasty conclusions, Lady.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

June's Figures Given For Food; July Dates Set

LISBON — More than 16 tons of surplus food was distributed during June, according to Robert Bycroft, county welfare director.

A total of 33,474 pounds of 10 items of food was distributed at five distribution centers in the county, with more than 88 per cent of those certified receiving food, Bycroft said.

A breakdown of distribution included:

Flour 8,760, canned meat, 4,205, milk, 4,158, beans, 4,098, cheese 2,672, cereal, 2,493, oleo 2,181, rice, 2,088, lard, 1,907 and peanut butter 912.

Dates for distribution for July include July 12 — East Liverpool Central Fire Station; July 13 — East Palestine City Building; July 14 — Salem City Building; July 15 — Wellsville American Legion; July 16 — Lisbon warehouse.

Bycroft said the distribution will not include the aid for the aged group.

There are many good recipes for the Spanish cold soup, Gazpacho; but whatever formula you use, make sure that the tomatoes called forr are ripe and full-flavored. Really sweet ripe tomatoes may make the difference between a delicious and an indifferent result.

Rotary Gets The 'Beesness' During A Talk By Richmond

Frank Richmond discussed "Birds and Bees, Flowers and Trees, with Emphasis on the Apis Mellifera," at the noon luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club Tuesday at the Travelers Hotel.

As the title implies, Richmond concentrated on the Apis Mellifera, or, as commonly known, the honey bee.

In a humorous, but informative talk, he discussed the bee in great detail, describing the ways of life of the drone or male bee, worker bees and the queen bee.

He spoke of the various types of bee cities, or nests, and of the bee's methods of producing honey and its byproduct, polinization. He referred to the bee's ability to convert nectar into honey, much like a cow converts its food into milk.

Richmond reviewed the fight for supremacy and the life of the queen bee and of the easy existence and disastrous end of the drone bee. In reference to the production of honey, he said it took 160,000 bees to make but 16 ounces.

The speaker referred to the bee as expert in geography, the sciences and architcture, noting that packing materials are now being produced that incorporate the design techniques used by the bee in their construction of combs.

William Pomeroy Jr. and Gene Hill were introduced as new members by Alvin Babb, president.

In the homogenization process, the fat in milk is simply broken up into particles too fine to rise as cream. Milk is homogenized either before or right after it is pasteurized.

4 Cited In Radar Check

Judge Suspends Permits Of 2 For Speeding Cases

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered 15-day suspensions in the operator's permits of two young motorists cited on speeding charges by the State Highway Patrol and local police.

Miss Linda K. Whitehall, 18, of R. D. 2 was given the suspension after she pleaded "no contest" on a police charge of driving 72 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone in the California Hollow stretch of the Freeway. She was one of four cited in a police radar check Tuesday night.

Questioned by the judge, the girl said she intends to attend college this fall. The judge said he decreed the license suspension rather than a fine because her parents would have had to pay the cash penalty.

"I don't want to take your college money," the judge added. He warned the girl that "72 miles an hour is entirely too fast — anything can happen at that speed." Police said the girl was cited at 7:50 last night.

The other license suspension was given to Michael Cook, 20, of Valley Dr., Calcutta, who pleaded guilty to a patrol charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone June 24 on Route 7.

Questioned by the court, Cook said he is married and his wife is expecting a child. He added that he needs transportation to his job at Midland. The court granted him the right to use his license during the suspension period for driving to and from work at the Crucible Steel Co.

Citing the county's growing traffic toll and the approaching holiday weekend, the judge told Cook: "I'm sitting here determined to save your life. If this is the only way to persuade you to drive at a safe speed, I'll have to do it."

Two others cited in the police radar check were fined $15 and costs and another failed to appear. The fines were imposed on Mrs. Anna L. Pack, 2133 Michigan Ave., charged with driving 48 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St., and Richard Gates, a Kinsman trucker, accused of driving 42 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone, also on W. 8th St. Father of four, Gates was warned by the judge his license will be suspended for a repetition of the offense.

Carl Bold of Greensburg, Pa., did not appear for a scheduled hearing. He was cited at 9:50 p. m. on a charge of driving 63 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. All the radar citations were issued by Patrolmen Paul Blevins and W. F. Copestick.

Two others cited by the patrol for speeding on Route 7 also were fined $15 and costs. Dewey H. Caldwell, 42, of 334 Fairfield Ave., Columbiana, was arrested June 23 for driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone and Loretta Jane Sell, 19, of 1721 Commerce St., Wellsville, was cited Sunday for driving 60 in a 50-mile zone.

No Stick But Lipstick

9 Commandments Listed For Women In Careers

BOSTON (AP) — Career women competing with men for the executive suite would do well to carry no stick, save lipstick.

And watch your language, lady, there may be gentlemen present.

The advice was from Miss Jo Foxworth in a talk before the national convention of the Advertising Federation of America Tuesday.

She is president of the Advertising Women of New York and a vice president and creative director of the New York firm of Calkins and Holden.

She presented a code of ethics for the woman who wants to succeed and called it "Nine Commandments for Women in Business," as follows:

First: Thou shall try harder: thou need not be No. 2.

(It is the first order of business to prove to the men that we mean business about our careers).

Second: Thou shall know when to zip thy ruby lips and let the men do the talking.

Third: Thou shall not attempt to hide behind thine own petticoat.

(Petticoats don't hide nearly so much as they used to. Nowadays they're apt to reveal rather more than they conceal).

Fourth: Thou shall speak softly and carry no stick, save lipstick.

(All of us have known the female whose voice, under stress' goes up so many decibels that it could set fire to the fur on a rat's back).

Fifth: Thou shall serve thy lady boss as graciously as thou servest any man.

(How can we expect to survive as lady bosses ourselves if we give the girls above us a hard way to go—and keep insisting that we'd rather work for men?)

Seventh: Thou shall watch thy language; there may be gentlemen present.

(A lot of our current smart talk drifted up to a polite society from the dock walloper, but when the girls start bandying it about it's particularly unsmart).

Weight - watchers will be interested to know that a ¼-pint serving of vanilla ice cream has 80 fewer calories than 2 plain cookies that are about 3 inches in diameter.

4 Cited In Radar Check

Judge Suspends Permits Of 2 For Speeding Cases

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered 15-day suspensions in the operator's permits of two young motorists cited on speeding charges by the State Highway Patrol and local police.

Miss Linda K. Whitehall, 18, of R. D. 2 was given the suspension after she pleaded "no contest" on a police charge of driving 72 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone in the California Hollow stretch of the Freeway. She was one of four cited in a police radar check Tuesday night.

Questioned by the judge, the girl said she intends to attend college this fall. The judge said he decreed the license suspension rather than a fine because her parents would have had to pay the cash penalty.

"I don't want to take your college money," the judge added. He warned the girl that "72 miles an hour is entirely too fast — anything can happen at that speed." Police said the girl was cited at 7:50 last night.

The other license suspension was given to Michael Cook, 20, of Valley Dr., Calcutta, who pleaded guilty to a patrol charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone June 24 on Route 7.

Questioned by the court, Cook said he is married and his wife is expecting a child. He added that he needs transportation to his job at Midland. The court granted him the right to use his license during the suspension period for driving to and from work at the Crucible Steel Co.

Citing the county's growing traffic toll and the approaching holiday weekend, the judge told Cook: "I'm sitting here determined to save your life. If this is the only way to persuade you to drive at a safe speed, I'll have to do it."

Two others cited in the police radar check were fined $15 and costs and another failed to appear. The fines were imposed on Mrs. Anna L. Pack, 2133 Michigan Ave., charged with driving 48 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St., and Richard Gates, a Kinsman trucker, accused of driving 42 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone, also on W. 8th St. Father of four, Gates was warned by the judge his license will be suspended for a repetition of the offense.

Carl Bold of Greensburg, Pa., did not appear for a scheduled hearing. He was cited at 9:50 p. m. on a charge of driving 63 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. All the radar citations were issued by Patrolmen Paul Blevins and W. F. Copestick.

Two others cited by the patrol for speeding on Route 7 also were fined $15 and costs. Dewey H. Caldwell, 42, of 334 Fairfield Ave., Columbiana, was arrested June 23 for driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone and Loretta Jane Sell, 19, of 1721 Commerce St., Wellsville, was cited Sunday for driving 60 in a 50-mile zone.

No Stick But Lipstick

9 Commandments Listed For Women In Careers

BOSTON (AP) — Career women competing with men for the executive suite would do well to carry no stick, save lipstick.

And watch your language, lady, there may be gentlemen present.

The advice was from Miss Jo Foxworth in a talk before the national convention of the Advertising Federation of America Tuesday.

She is president of the Advertising Women of New York and a vice president and creative director of the New York firm of Calkins and Holden.

She presented a code of ethics for the woman who wants to succeed and called it "Nine Commandments for Women in Business," as follows:

First: Thou shall try harder: thou need not be No. 2.

(It is the first order of business to prove to the men that we mean business about our careers).

Second: Thou shall know when to zip thy ruby lips and let the men do the talking.

Third: Thou shall not attempt to hide behind thine own petticoat.

(Petticoats don't hide nearly so much as they used to. Nowadays they're apt to reveal rather more than they conceal).

Fourth: Thou shall speak softly and carry no stick, save lipstick.

(All of us have known the female whose voice, under stress' goes up so many decibels that it could set fire to the fur on a rat's back).

Fifth: Thou shall serve thy lady boss as graciously as thou servest any man.

(How can we expect to survive as lady bosses ourselves if we give the girls above us a hard way to go—and keep insisting that we'd rather work for men?)

(A man grown too great for his own raiment is hard enough to take, but a woman who is too big for her own bustle is impossible).

Seventh: Thou shall watch thy language; there may be gentlemen present.

(A lot of our current smart talk drifted up to a polite society from the dock walloper, but when the girls start bandying it about it's particularly unsmart).

Weight - watchers will be interested to know that a ¼-pint serving of vanilla ice cream has 80 fewer calories than 2 plain cookies that are about 3 inches in diameter.

Projects Are Outlined By Wellsville Jaycees

The directors voted to host a Region 8 meeting this summer. It will be at the Waterford Park race track.

A new awards program was adopted, with an award to be given from four to 12 times a year to "any citizen performing any outstanding service to the community."

In cooperation with all other interested organizations, road signs will be erected. Those interested in participating may contact the Jaycees.

Frank Fusco was named chairman of the annual Jaycee Day celebration.

The community calendar, an annual project, will be completed July 12, with the calendar ready for distribution by Sept. 1.

Walt Taylor of Salem, District 20 vice president, was a guest along with Nick Rini, Salem Jaycee vice president.

Jerry Russell was named program chairman to provide special entertainment for the July 26 meeting.

Russell was selected Jaycee of the Month for May for his participation in the Citizens Scholarship Foundation program and Don Snediker was named for June for his work in the awards program.

Bill Miller, outgoing president, called the meeting to order and at the conclusion of old business turned the gavel over to Ralph Fusco, new president. Miller thanked his officers and those who helped him the past year.

Russell, chaplain, gave the invocation.

Dave Davis, chairman, reported on the inaugural ball Saturday night. Roy Groom said renovation of the hall has been completed and it is being rented again. Anyone interested should contact Groom at 532-3046 or Walter Henthorne, building chairman, at 532-3209 or 532-1310.

Red Ties Denied By Rights Groups

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) —The claim of a special committee of the Alabama Legislature that three civil rights groups are promoting the Communist cause has drawn immediate answering fire from the groups' leaders.

A report by the Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace was released Tuesday, charging that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and the Congress of Racial Equality are Communist inspired.

Reactions from leaders of those groups included, "witch-hunting", "a typical response from a typical Southern legislature," "entirely false," and "rubbish."

King, in turn, blasted the report as "another attempt to evade the fact that democracy does not exist in Alabama."

Year's Probation Set For Stolen Property

LISBON — Larry Dowling, 23, of Highlandtown was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence and was placed on one year's probation Tuesday by County Judge J. L. MacDonald for receiving stolen property.

He was cited June 3 by Salineville Police Chief Ray Keister after the arrest of John W. Pearson, 20, of Irondale for the burglary of the Clarence Melhorn garage in Salineville May 29 and it was learned Pearson had sold some of the articles taken from the garage to Dowling.

2 Ohio Senators Ask Mental Hospital Study

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two Senate Democrats have called for an investigation of "generally deplorable conditions" at Lima State Hospital.

Sen. Anthony O. Calabrese, D-Cuyahoga, and Sen. Charles J. Carney, D-Mahoning, asked in the resolution for a probe to be conducted by the Committee on Public Inspection.

They referred to a series of newspaper articles which depicted, they said, "generally deplorable conditions and brutality to inmates."

Air Tour Set Over County

LISBON — A conservation and agricultural air tour will be held in Columbiana County July 14 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

An air tour has not been held in the county for 15 years and considerable interest has been expressed in this one, Myers said.

The event will begin at the Loudon air strip, just west of New Garden on Route 172.

The tour will emphasize recommended conservation and agricultural practices, including contours, tilling, ponds and reforestation. Also included will be strip mining and reclamation, industry and recreation.

The event is open to the public and is sponsored by the Soil and Water Conservation District and the Cooperative Extension Service. Tour tickets will be available for $3.50, Myers said.

India, Pakistan Sign Agreement On Truce

NEW DELHI (AP)—India and Pakistan signed a formal ceasefire agreement for the Rann of Kutch today. It is to take effect at the front at 6:30 a.m. Thursday.

Both governments reportedly agreed to give up some of their military outposts along the disputed area in Kutch, a desolate seaside region on India's western frontier.

Heavy fighting erupted in the barren area in April and each side charged the other with aggression.

Allen's Pinch Double Helps Twins

A year ago Ralph Terry was trying to break out of the New York Yankees bullpen and the Cleveland Indians were doing time in the second division.

Today Terry and the Indians are on the loose while the Yankees are where Cleveland was last June 30 — sixth place.

The torrid Indians took the American League lead for the first time Tuesday night by pounding Boston 8-5 as ex-Yankee Terry picked up his eighth victory of the season.

The tall-right-hander had won only two at this point last year and had lost his starting job. He was 2-6 with one complete game and a 6.95 earned run average.

"The Yankees tried to use me in relief," Terry said, "but I didn't go well and I think they gave up on me."

Terry, who had won a total of 40 games in the two previous seasons, wound up 7-11 for 1964 and was dealt to Cleveland last October.

He won four of his first five starts, then went a month without a victory before starting to roll again. Tuesday night's victory was his fourth straight. He has five complete games, two shutouts — including a 4-0 white-wash of the Yankees — and a 2.68 ERA.

The Indians' 16th victory in their last 18 games moved them one-half game ahead of second place Minnesota. The Twins edged Chicago 7-6 in an afternoon game, dropping the White Sox from a first-place tie into third position, one game out.

Washington, meanwhile, nipped the Yankees' five-game winning string with a 2-1 verdict over the defending AL champions, who fell 10 games off the pace and three under .500.

Baltimore topped Detroit 3-2 on Curt Blefary's two-run single in the eighth in the only other AL game scheduled.

Minnesota pushed over the winning run in the last of the ninth on a double by pinch hitter Bernie Allen, a sacrifice bunt and Zoilo Versalles' scoring fly. Smokey Burgess' two-run pinch homer had tied the score in the top of the inning. Jimmie Hall and Harmon Killebrew each drove in two runs for the Twins.

Frank Howard broke up New York southpaw Al Downing's no-hit bid in the seventh with a towering homer and the Senators won it in the eighth on an error by Clete Boyer, a wild pickoff throw by Downing, Bob Chance's single and Ed Brinkman's sacrifice fly. Bobby Richardson doubled in the eighth and scored New York's run on an error by Ken McMullen.

John Orsino's single, Brooks Robinson's double and Blefary's two-base shot enabled Baltimore to end a three-game skid and take fourth place, one game ahead of the Tigers. Rookie John Sullivan had put Detroit in front 2-1 in the fifth with a two-run homer.

Koufax Wins 13th; Pirates Manage Split

By MURRAY CHASS

Sandy Koufax finally has overtaken Sammy Ellis. He's also surpassed Sandy Koufax.

The Los Angeles Dodger ace recorded his 13th victory in the National League leaders' 9-3 triumph over San Francisco Tuesday.

Ellis, on the other hand, spent 14 innings trying for his 13th victory but couldn't get it. Instead Cincinnati wound up losing to Pittsburgh 2-1 in 16 innings. The Reds came back and won the nightcap 7-5.

In winning his seventh straight game, Koufax completed a masterful month of pitching. During June he won six times, one more than he ever has won before in one month.

The 13 triumphs also are the most the 29-year-old left-hander has had by the end of June. In 1963, Koufax won five games in June, giving him a 12-3 record en route to a 25-5 season.

But it took Koufax the entire month to edge by Ellis, who has blossomed into a sterling starter after spending last season in the bullpen.

The Reds' right-hander won his eighth game at the beginning of the month, five days before Koufax gained his eighth. Ellis proceeded to reach No. 9 six days before Koufax and No. 10 one day before.

Koufax then pulled even, each winning his 11th June 20 and his 12th last Friday. Each has lost three times.

In other National League games Philadelphia whipped St. Louis 7-1 and Milwaukee trimmed New York 8-6. Rain washed out Houston and Chicago.

Ellis gave up just four hits in 14 innings but wasn't around when Roberto Clemente singled home Bailey with the winning run in the 16th. Ellis scored the Reds' only run, racing across as Pete Rose singled in the 13th.

Rose batted in three runs in the nightcap, the first with a third-inning triple and two more with a single in a five-run fourth-inning outburst. Pitcher Joe Nuxhall also drove in two runs with a single in the inning.

Bo Belinsky stopped St. Louis on six hits, winning his third game against four defeats. Philadelphia supported him with a bases empty home run by Tony Gonzalez, a two-run homer by Johnny Callison and Dick Stuart's three-run blow.

The Braves outlasted the Mets with the help of two errors by Johnny Lewis and one by Chuck Hiller. Lewis' first miscue led to the run that broke a 4-4 tie in the sixth. Mathews scoring on Denis Menke's sacrifice fly. Warren Spahn suffered his 11th setback. He has won four times.

Yanks Ignored On AL All-Star Team

Indians Place Colavito, Davalillo On Squad For Annual Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — Felix Mantilla, a New York Met reject, was named today on the 1965 American League All-Star team which for the first time in its 33-year history failed to list a single member of the New York Yankees.

Mantilla, the American League's runs-batted-in leader, beat out Bobby Richardson of the Yankees for the second base job on the opening line-up which will face the National League's best on July 13 at Minnesota. The veteran Boston Red Sox infielder, who also has played the outfield, is the league's fifth leading batter with .317.

Third baseman Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles was the only repeater from the 1964 opening line-up. Robinson was joined by four players who made the team for the first time. They included shortstop Dick McAuliffe and left fielder Willie Horton of the Detroit Tigers, center fielder Vic Davalillo of the Cleveland Indians, and Mantilla.

Other starters, chosen by a vote of 280 league players, coaches and managers, were catcher Earl Battey of Minnesota, first baseman Bill Skowron of the Chicago White Sox and right fielder Rocky Colavito of the Indians.

In all, the American League starting team, exclusive of the pitcher, comprised two players each from Cleveland and Detroit, and one apiece from Baltimore, Boston and Chicago, and Minnesota.

Shut out, besides the Yankees, were Washington, Los Angeles and Kansas City.

Commissioner Ford Frick, whose office conducted the balloting, said the National League starting line-up will be announced Sunday, July 4. The remainder of the squads, including the pitchers, will be announced later.

Al Lopez of the White Sox, who will manage the AL All-Stars, was expected to name eight pitchers. Gene Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies, will manage the National Leaguers. Each squad will carry 25 players.

The Yankees who, back in 1939 and 1940 had five starters in the opening line-up, managed to land two runner-up positions.

Catcher Elston Howard, sidelined for five weeks following an elbow operation, finished second to Battey. Richardson was runner up to Mantilla.

Last year's game was played at Shea Stadium in New York, where the National League won 7-4 to even the series at 17-all. One game ended in a tie.

The National League has won six of the last seven games.

Kelso Third In Comeback

OCEANPORT, N.J. (AP) — "Kelso retire?

"Of course not," said trainer Carl Hanford today of the world's leading money winning thoroughbred and five times Horse of the Year. "We've never retired him. The newspapers did that."

After finishing third in his first start of the year, a six-furlong $5,000 allowance race at Monmouth Park Tuesday, Kelso headed back into training for the Diamond State Handicap at Delaware Park on July 10.

"I plan to run Kelso as long as I think he can beat the best," said Hanford. "He's never been let up on or turned out except when he was injured."

Errors Help Sevy's Win; Howell Sparks Burbick's

Sevy's scored three unearned runs for a 3-0 victory over George Bright's and Burbick's handed Woodbine a 9-4 setback Tuesday in the Pony League.

Sevy's took advantage of four Bright's errors and the next two hit pitching of Danny Cunningham to gain the nod. The winner's collected five hits off Steffen scoring a single run in the fifth inning and two in the sixth.

Bill Montgomery led the hit parade for Sevy's with two singles while Cunningham blasted a double.

A grand slam home run by Howell in the third inning when Burbick's scored five runs proved the big blow in that game.

Berhar was the winning pitcher and allowed five hits while Doughty, the loser, gave up six safeties. Sonny Clark also homered for Woodbine.

Ewbank Gets Postoperation Look At Rich Quarterback

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A lean, deeply-tanned young man in a green and white jersey with Namath lettered across the back, dropped back eight paces, set up and fired a long pass down the foul line at Shea Stadium.

"Okay, Joe, I'm satisfied," said a roundish little gent with a crew cut.

Joe Namath, the rookie quarterback from Alabama who is supposed to be getting $400,000 from the New York Jets, had passed his first post-operation test for Weeb Ewbank, his new coach.

"I expect Joe to be working with all the others on the first day at camp," said Ewbank. "I expect him to be the quarterback in our rookie game with Boston."

The Jets report at their Peekskill N.Y. training camp July 14 and will play the Boston rookies July 28 at Lowell, Mass. An intrasquad game July 31 at Baker Field in New York will precede the first regular exhibition game against Houston Aug. 7 at Alexandria, Va.

Namath, who underwent surgery on his right knee Jan. 25, will be tested thoroughly in those early games as John Huarte, his rookie rival from Notre Dame (a $200,000 prize) will be in Chicago working out with the All-Stars for their Aug. 6 game with the Cleveland Browns.

The veteran Boston Red Sox infielder, who also has played the outfield, is the league's fifth leading batter with .317.

Third baseman Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles was the only repeater from the 1964 opening line-up. Robinson was joined by four players who made the team for the first time. They included shortstop Dick McAuliffe and left fielder Willie Horton of the Detroit Tigers, center fielder Vic Davalillo of the Cleveland Indians, and Mantilla.

Other starters, chosen by a vote of 280 league players, coaches and managers, were catcher Earl Battey of Minnesota, first baseman Bill Skowron of the Chicago White Sox and right fielder Rocky Colavito of the Indians.

In all, the American League starting team, exclusive of the pitcher, comprised two players each from Cleveland and Detroit, and one apiece from Baltimore, Boston and Chicago, and Minnesota.

Shut out, besides the Yankees, were Washington, Los Angeles and Kansas City.

Commissioner Ford Frick, whose office conducted the balloting, said the National League starting line-up will be announced Sunday, July 4. The remainder of the squads, including the pitchers, will be announced later.

Al Lopez of the White Sox, who will manage the AL All-Stars, was expected to name eight pitchers. Gene Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies, will manage the National Leaguers. Each squad will carry 25 players.

The Yankees who, back in 1939 and 1940 had five starters in the opening line-up, managed to land two runner-up positions.

Catcher Elston Howard, sidelined for five weeks following an elbow operation, finished second to Battey. Richardson was runner up to Mantilla.

Last year's game was played at Shea Stadium in New York, where the National League won 7-4 to even the series at 17-all. One game ended in a tie.

The National League has won six of the last seven games.

Kelso Third In Comeback

OCEANPORT, N.J. (AP) — "Kelso retire?

"Of course not," said trainer Carl Hanford today of the world's leading money winning thoroughbred and five times Horse of the Year. "We've never retired him. The newspapers did that."

After finishing third in his first start of the year, a six-furlong $5,000 allowance race at Monmouth Park Tuesday, Kelso headed back into training for the Diamond State Handicap at Delaware Park on July 10.

"I plan to run Kelso as long as I think he can beat the best," said Hanford. "He's never been let up on or turned out except when he was injured."

Errors Help Sevy's Win; Howell Sparks Burbick's

Sevy's scored three unearned runs for a 3-0 victory over George Bright's and Burbick's handed Woodbine a 9-4 setback Tuesday in the Pony League.

Sevy's took advantage of four Bright's errors and the next two hit pitching of Danny Cunningham to gain the nod. The winner's collected five hits off Steffen scoring a single run in the fifth inning and two in the sixth.

Bill Montgomery led the hit parade for Sevy's with two singles while Cunningham blasted a double.

A grand slam home run by Howell in the third inning when Burbick's scored five runs proved the big blow in that game.

Berhar was the winning pitcher and allowed five hits while Doughty, the loser, gave up six safeties. Sonny Clark also homered for Woodbine.

Ewbank Gets Postoperation Look At Rich Quarterback

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A lean, deeply-tanned young man in a green and white jersey with Namath lettered across the back, dropped back eight paces, set up and fired a long pass down the foul line at Shea Stadium.

"Okay, Joe, I'm satisfied," said a roundish little gent with a crew cut.

Joe Namath, the rookie quarterback from Alabama who is supposed to be getting $400,000 from the New York Jets, had passed his first post-operation test for Weeb Ewbank, his new coach.

"I expect Joe to be working with all the others on the first day at camp," said Ewbank. "I expect him to be the quarterback in our rookie game with Boston."

The Jets report at their Peekskill N.Y. training camp July 14 and will play the Boston rookies July 28 at Lowell, Mass. An intrasquad game July 31 at Baker Field in New York will precede the first regular exhibition game against Houston Aug. 7 at Alexandria, Va.

Namath, who underwent surgery on his right knee Jan. 25, will be tested thoroughly in those early games as John Huarte, his rookie rival from Notre Dame (a $200,000 prize) will be in Chicago working out with the All-Stars for their Aug. 6 game with the Cleveland Browns.

Whittington Whiffs 17 In Newell's 16-3 Win

Craig Whittington whiffed 17 batters and only was touched for three hits in hurling Newell to a 16-3 decision over Frankfort in the South Side Hot Stove Senior League.

In another contest, Lawrenceville eked out a 12-10 victory over Hanover.

Whittington's teammates backed him with a 10-hit attack including a home run by Rick Gogol. Foltz and Anderson also had two hits each for the winners. Stevens cracked a home run for Frankfort and was the losing pitcher but fanned 10 batters.

Six errors helped Lawrenceville to its narrow victory over Hanover.

Jerry Anderson, the losing hurler, gave up six hits and fanned seven but was a victim of loose play by his teammates. Jay Wedgewood was the winning pitcher in relief. Bill Schladen, Carl Sayre and Dave Wagner had triples for the winners while Bob Mays came up with two hits.

Medics Clinch 2nd Half On 1-Hitter By Welsh

The Medics clinched the second half title in the National Division of the Little League when Ricky Welsh hurled a one-hitter for an 8-1 victory over Burbick's Tuesday.

In two other games, both American Division games, Vernon Dell scored a 13-9 victory over Golden Star while Veteran Plate Glass outlasted Travelers for a 17-10 victory.

The victory by the Medics will put them in the title game meeting the winner of the American Division for the City Little League crown.

Welsh helped his own cause with a double and two singles while Aaron and Moore came up with two hits each. McHenry had the lone hit for Burbick's and was the losing pitcher.

John Cunningham pitched Vernon Dell to victory and also collected a double and single. Gary Cunnigham slapped a triple and double and Joe Hindman and Tom Hanselman had two hits each. Den Horger doubled and singled for Golden Star.

Veteran Glass came up with 20 hits to whip Travelers. The winners had several hitting stars. Rick Watson had five hits including a triple while Don Plant and Jim Cheeks blasted home runs and Mike Lockhart collected two doubles and a single.

Jim Lynch tripled and singled for Travelers and Clete Payne singled twice.

Cup Captain Predicts Win For Ralston

By GEOFFREY MILLER
Associated Press Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — America's Davis Cup captain said today that Dennis Ralston has a great chance to win Wimbledon and steel himself for the Cup battles ahead.

George MacCall, who has taken over the captaincy of the United States team from Vic Seixas, forecast a close semifinals battle today between Ralston, the American No. 1 from Bakersfield, Calif. and Australia's Roy Emerson, reigning Wimbledon champion.

"It will be an offensive battle on both sides," said MacCall, of North Hollywood, Calif.

Ralston and Emerson are fighting for a place in Friday's Wimbledon final. The other semifinal was scheduled between Australian Fred Stolle, runner-up for the last two years, and South Africa's Cliff Drysdale.

The United States is scheduled to play its next Davis Cup match on hard courts at Dallas, Tex., beginning July 31 — probably against Mexico.

Mexico has first to beat the winner of the British West Indies-New Zealand elimination.

MacCall said the American team will not be chosen until after the United States Western championships at Milwaukee Town Club July 5-11 and the National Clay Court Championships at River Forest, Ill., starting July 12.

Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., went through to the semifinals of the women's singles Tuesday with a 6-2 6-1 win over Australia's Lesley Turner — and found herself shouldering the American flag alone.

Nancy Richey of Dallas, Cliff Richey's elder sister, unexpectedly lost 4-6, 6-1, 5-7 to Christine Truman of Britain.

In the semifinals Thursday Billie Jean will take on Maria Bueno of Brazil, the defending champion. Miss Truman plays Margaret Smith of Australia.

Grid Giant Official Dies Of Cancer At 57

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Mara's death from cancer Tuesday left the New York Giants of the National Football League without a leader. It broke up a brother combination that had developed the club into a multi-million dollar enterprise in the years since their father, Tim, an NFL pioneer, had turned operation over to his sons.

Jack, 57, was the administrator, the man who negotiated with the radio and television people, the man directly concerned with matters effecting the club and the league. Wellington, eight years younger, has been more concerned with player, coaching and scouting affairs.

Craig Whittington whiffed 17 batters and only was touched for three hits in hurling Newell to a 16-3 decision over Frankfort in the South Side Hot Stove Senior League.

In another contest, Lawrenceville eked out a 12-10 victory over Hanover.

Whittington's teammates backed him with a 10-hit attack including a home run by Rick Gogol. Foltz and Anderson also had two hits each for the winners. Stevens cracked a home run for Frankfort and was the losing pitcher but fanned 10 batters.

Six errors helped Lawrenceville to its narrow victory over Hanover.

Jerry Anderson, the losing hurler, gave up six hits and fanned seven but was a victim of loose play by his teammates. Jay Wedgewood was the winning pitcher in relief. Bill Schladen, Carl Sayre and Dave Wagner had triples for the winners while Bob Mays came up with two hits.

Medics Clinch 2nd Half On 1-Hitter By Welsh

The Medics clinched the second half title in the National Division of the Little League when Ricky Welsh hurled a one-hitter for an 8-1 victory over Burbick's Tuesday.

In two other games, both American Division games, Vernon Dell scored a 13-9 victory over Golden Star while Veteran Plate Glass outlasted Travelers for a 17-10 victory.

The victory by the Medics will put them in the title game meeting the winner of the American Division for the City Little League crown.

Welsh helped his own cause with a double and two singles while Aaron and Moore came up with two hits each. McHenry had the lone hit for Burbick's and was the losing pitcher.

John Cunningham pitched Vernon Dell to victory and also collected a double and single. Gary Cunnigham slapped a triple and double and Joe Hindman and Tom Hanselman had two hits each. Den Horger doubled and singled for Golden Star.

Veteran Glass came up with 20 hits to whip Travelers. The winners had several hitting stars. Rick Watson had five hits including a triple while Don Plant and Jim Cheeks blasted home runs and Mike Lockhart collected two doubles and a single.

Cup Captain Predicts Win For Ralston

By GEOFFREY MILLER
Associated Press Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — America's Davis Cup captain said today that Dennis Ralston has a great chance to win Wimbledon and steel himself for the Cup battles ahead.

George MacCall, who has taken over the captaincy of the United States team from Vic Seixas, forecast a close semifinals battle today between Ralston, the American No. 1 from Bakersfield, Calif. and Australia's Roy Emerson, reigning Wimbledon champion.

"It will be an offensive battle on both sides," said MacCall, of North Hollywood, Calif.

Ralston and Emerson are fighting for a place in Friday's Wimbledon final. The other semifinal was scheduled between Australian Fred Stolle, runner-up for the last two years, and South Africa's Cliff Drysdale.

The United States is scheduled to play its next Davis Cup match on hard courts at Dallas, Tex., beginning July 31 — probably against Mexico.

Mexico has first to beat the winner of the British West Indies-New Zealand elimination.

MacCall said the American team will not be chosen until after the United States Western championships at Milwaukee Town Club July 5-11 and the National Clay Court Championships at River Forest, Ill., starting July 12.

Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., went through to the semifinals of the women's singles Tuesday with a 6-2 6-1 win over Australia's Lesley Turner — and found herself shouldering the American flag alone.

Nancy Richey of Dallas, Cliff Richey's elder sister, unexpectedly lost 4-6, 6-1, 5-7 to Christine Truman of Britain.

Grid Giant Official Dies Of Cancer At 57

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Mara's death from cancer Tuesday left the New York Giants of the National Football League without a leader. It broke up a brother combination that had developed the club into a multi-million dollar enterprise in the years since their father, Tim, an NFL pioneer, had turned operation over to his sons.

Jack, 57, was the administrator, the man who negotiated with the radio and television people, the man directly concerned with matters effecting the club and the league. Wellington, eight years younger, has been more concerned with player, coaching and scouting affairs.

Trouble May Lurk In Open Waters

By JOHN BOHANNAN

Vacation time brings a challenge to thousands of inland trailer boat owners to seek new adventures along the coast, in bays and in the larger lakes. These skippers are accustomed to sheltered areas, where mistakes can be made.

In open water, these same errors can be disastrous.

First precaution is to watch the weather. Inland, a gale does little more than ruffle the surface of a river with high banks, or produce three-foot waves on a small lake. When the water extends beyond the horizon, a fresh breeze can produce seas large enough to overwhelm some small outboards and centerboard sailboats.

INSTEAD OF drifting ashore for a soft landing on a mudbank, a big-water blow can pound a hull of any size to pieces on a lee shore.

Study the newspaper weather reports. Listen to weather broadcasts. Keep yourself informed of impending squalls and high winds. If the red, triangular small craft warning flag is flying, don't go out.

If you're venturing offshore, make sure you have enough fuel to take you there and bring you back, with enough left over for a healthy margin of safety. Know your speed, and your fuel consumption in gallons per hour. These two factors will tell you how far you can go with the amount of fuel on board.

Most anchors used by inland skippers are inadequate. Some use only a weight; others have miniature Navy - style anchors with small flukes. Just enough line to reach the bottom and not much to spare is the usual situation.

OFFSHORE, you'll need a hefty anchor with large fluke area, with enough line to give a scope of seven to 10 times the depth of the water to hold in a blow. An extra anchor and line give added safety.

Just because you have an outboard motor which will kick up when passing over an obstruction, don't get the idea you can get along without charts. Big waters have rocky reefs just under the surface, capable of punching a hole in the bottom of a hull. You must know where you are in relation to these shoals at all times. Purchase charts and learn how to read them.

It may seem ridiculous to mention it because the need is so obvious, but any boat used offshore must be fitted with a good compass, compensated as well as possible. The skipper should have a deviation card for it and know how to apply this error as well as variation. When fog closes in, he should know how to steer a clear course back to port.

Inexperienced boat owners should confine their cruising to daytime. Unless you know how to recognize navigational lights and maintain your knowledge of position through dead reckoning and an occasional fix, it's easy to get lost when no landmarks are visible.

Anyone who wants to try offshore boating for the first time will do well to heed the advice of seasoned skippers or take the excellent beginner's courses offered by the United States Power Squadrons and the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Questions and Answers

Q.—I am a former Air Force pilot and have just taken up boating. Is the estimated time of arrival just as important as it is in flying?

A.—Yes. You must know when you should arrive at a buoy or other aid to navigation so you can look for it at the proper time and correct your next course if necessary to allow for leeway.

Q.—Is it required to have a copy of the Tide Tables when cruising in a boat that draws less than a foot of water?

A.—It isn't required, but it's good common sense. You can get the Tide Tables and Current Tables from the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, Washington 25, D.C., or from any of the survey's agents listed in the Notice to Mariners.

Continuance Set In 4 Cases

Hearings involving four proprietors and operators of business establishments in the Weirton area were continued Tuesday by Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

The four, who had been cited June 30 for exhibiting gaming devices following a raid by Hancock County sheriff's deputies in which nine pinball machines were confiscated, were named as follows:

Emilio Julian, 38, operator of the Corner Cigar Store; Alex Martinett, 61, operator of the D & M Bar; Raymond Gafter, 58, licensee of Ramy's Lunch, and James Tunanidas, 43, bartender of the Club Sands at Kings Creek.

Each has posted $500 bond. Edward Zagula, Weirton attorney, is representing the four.

Yesterday's action followed the pattern of a similar continuance granted Monday to eight persons arrested June 12 at clubs throughout Hancock County in connection with simultaneous raids by deputies which yielded 45 slot machines.

The cases were continued on the basis of new laws of criminal procedure effective June 3 regarding the validity of the issuance and execution of search warrants.

The new date for both cases has been set tentatively for July 15.

LISBON — A 10-year-old boy received bruises and contusions of legs and arms when struck by an auto while riding his bicycle Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. on N. Beaver St., about 50 feet south of Pendleton.

Alton R. Crothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton B. Crothers, 615 N. Beaver St., rode out of an alley in front of a car driven by Gregg V. Weinstock, 20, Lisbon R. D. 5.

Weinstock told police he didn't see the boy until the collision.

Weinstock was not cited. Police estimated $75 damage to the hood of Weinstock's 1965 Mustang. The bicycle was destroyed.

The youth was taken to Salem City Hospital in the firemen's ambulance and was treated and released.

Progressing Together

Last week area leaders in government, business, labor and education joined with Crucible to break ground for the largest continuous casting plant for specialty steels in the world. To be constructed at Midland works, the new installation will be ready for start up next spring.

Crucible asked area leaders to help get the multi-million dollar project underway because it believes the new facility is symbolic of the great industrial progress throughout the tri-state—an area the company considers its community.

The new equipment is significant to Crucible's continuing expansion and growth. The company's progress, in turn, is important to the continued growth and prosperity of the greater Midland area. This interdependence has long been recognized by both the company and the community as essential to the individual success of each.

Party Splits In Israel On Feud Issues

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Former Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion split Israel's dominant Mapai party today, and his supporters announced they would field a separate list of candidates in the November general election.

The split in the Mapai, Israel's labor party, was the outcome of a bitter feud between the 78-year-old Ben-Gurion and his successor as premier and party head, Levi Eshkol. The feud stemmed from an 11-year-old political scandal known as the Lavon affair.

The affair concerns the dismissal in 1954 of Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon because of a "security mishap." The facts in the case have never been made public in Israel, but it is generally believed to involve the smashing of an Israeli espionage and sabotage ring in Cairo.

Lavon denied responsibility for the mishap, and a Cabinet investigation in 1960 cleared him over Ben-Gurion's objections.

Ben-Gurion, who retired in 1963, started demanding a new inquiry into the case last year. Eshkol objected. When the matter threatened to come up in Parliament on a non-confidence vote last December, Eshkol resigned.

He later agreed to stay on as premier until the election in November. The Mapai's Central Committee early this month nominated him as its candidate for premier if it wins the election.

Ben-Gurion's supporters called for a party convention to decide on the choice, but the party secretariat last Friday overruled the demand 32-8.

A four-hour meeting of Ben-Gurion supporters decided on the split early today. But a number of influential Ben-Gurion supporters within the party refused to go along. Among them were Mayor Abba Khousky of Haifa and former army chief of staff Moshe Dayan.

Dayan said he favored a "fighting opposition" within the party rather than an outright split.

Field Crop Work Set July 7 Near Canfield

LISBON — Columbiana County producers are being invited to participate in a field crop day July 7 at the Mahoning County experiment farm, located south of Canfield on Route 46.

Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, said the demonstrations will begin at 1 p.m. and will be repeated again at 7 p.m. They will include crop varieties, weed control, minimum tillage and other cropping practices.

The sessions are being sponsored by the cooperative extension services in the two counties.

Russell Will Assist In County 4-H Work

LISBON—Jerry Russell, principal of East Junior High School in East Liverpool, will be assisting the Columbiana County staff with the 4-H program during July and August, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Russell will help conduct various 4-H events and organize and develop clubs.

He formerly taught several years in the county system.

mittees were not about to let Clay take over. The best Bliss and Clay could wangle was a compromise in which Washburn would serve in a dual capacity for Clay's committee and the House committee. This would provide a trial run to see what kind of coordination could be worked out in soliciting funds.

If Bliss wasn't entirely successful in the financial field, he did manage to avoid a threatened North-South fight over the filling of his old job as chairman of the Republican State Chairmens' Association.

Wirt A. Yeager Jr., Mississippi segregationist, had popped up as a candidate for this post. This brought Craig Truax of Pennsylvania into the fight to prevent any tagging of the party's working organization with the kind of policies that Yeager espouses.

Gets Away Clean—Or Dirty

Prisoner 000065 Avoids Hot Water In Jail Break

CHICAGO (AP) — "Should he ever apply for parole, this prison break will be in his record and be held against him," said Warden Jack Johnson.

He was talking about Bernardo St. Bernard, Prisoner No. 000065, who is in the dog house at the Cook County Jail.

All was quiet in the jail Tuesday when a guard and two bailiffs went to escort Bernardo for that long walk — to the bath house.

Bernardo, a life termer who no doubt figured he was already in enough hot water, made a break for it. He dodged away from his escort, got out of the jail and almost got away clean or dirty, if you please.

It took three guards to recapture Bernardo, a hefty 150-pounder at age 15 months. He finally was subdued when busy traffic blocked him from crossing a street.

Now he is back in jail, and facing that date in the bath house.

Bernardo is serving a life term, imposed earlier this month by a Circuit Court judge on a charge of mopery with intent to gawk. When he entered jail, he got the full treatment accorded all new prisoners, from paw prints to mug shots.

There's a rumor that Bernardo is really the jail mascot. Which is probably why Warden Johnson smiled when he said:

"Dog, or no dog, his case will come before the jail disciplinary board. I suspect his dog biscuit privileges will be suspended indefinitely."

Baker

about his outside financial and business dealings.

When President Johnson was the Senate Democratic leader, Baker was his right-hand man and the committee's investigations ballooned into an issue in last fall's election campaign. Republicans accused the Democrats of a cover-up and a whitewash.

Baker, who accumulated a claimed fortune of over $2 million while on the Senate pay roll at $19,600 a year, invoked his Fifth Amendment protection and refused to answer questions when called as a witness.

A former page boy from Pickens, S.C., he was found "guilty of many gross improprieties" by the Rules Committee in a report last July. It said he had used his Senate office "as if it were a private business office."

Testimony brought out that he had interests in insurance, vending machines, motels, meat imports and other enterprises and had made some highly profitable stock purchases.

After the committee's report last July, Williams forced a reopening of the investigation with a Senate speech charging a political payoff by Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia contractor and former ambassador to Ireland, on the District of Columbia Stadium project.

Williams said that McCloskey had made a $35,000 overpayment on the performance bond on the stadium and that $25,000 of this had been channeled through Baker to the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance man, later swore he was the "bag man" and kept $10,000 for handling the money. But McCloskey made a sworn denial of the charge and testified the overpayment was a "goof" by his company.

Others who figured prominently in the reopened investigation included lobbyist friends of Baker and Walter Jenkins, one of Johnson's top aides, who resigned at the President's request during last fall's presidential campaign after disclosure Jenkins twice had been arrested on morals charges.

On the advice of psychiatrists, the committee excused Jenkins from testifying but he answered written questions under oath and denied pressuring Reynolds into buying $1,208 worth of advertising time on an Austin, Tex., television station controlled by the Johnson family.

Selling is Part of His Business

Each New Customer is a Real Thrill for Him!

• IN ANY business enterprise, securing new customers is an important part of its success. And that's especially true when a young man's in business for himself, as is your newspaperboy. His profits depend upon his own efforts!

THAT IS why you'll see him step lively when a new family moves into your vicinity—to show them his newspaper and point to its exciting headlines, enjoyable features and thrifty shopping news! He knows the newcomers will want the newspaper that's most popular with all the neighbors, and he aims to become their regular carrier, right away!

IN SO doing, he's not only adding another customer-profit to his route income; he's also learning a most valuable business skill—the ability to sell himself, his product and his service! It's something EVERY boy should learn—and a newspaper route is the best place to do it!

mittees were not about to let Clay take over. The best Bliss and Clay could wangle was a compromise in which Washburn would serve in a dual capacity for Clay's committee and the House committee. This would provide a trial run to see what kind of coordination could be worked out in soliciting funds.

If Bliss wasn't entirely successful in the financial field, he did manage to avoid a threatened North-South fight over the filling of his old job as chairman of the Republican State Chairmens' Association.

Wirt A. Yeager Jr., Mississippi segregationist, had popped up as a candidate for this post. This brought Craig Truax of Pennsylvania into the fight to prevent any tagging of the party's working organization with the kind of policies that Yeager espouses.

Gets Away Clean—Or Dirty

Prisoner 000065 Avoids Hot Water In Jail Break

CHICAGO (AP) — "Should he ever apply for parole, this prison break will be in his record and be held against him," said Warden Jack Johnson.

He was talking about Bernardo St. Bernard, Prisoner No. 000065, who is in the dog house at the Cook County Jail.

All was quiet in the jail Tuesday when a guard and two bailiffs went to escort Bernardo for that long walk — to the bath house.

Bernardo, a life termer who no doubt figured he was already in enough hot water, made a break for it. He dodged away from his escort, got out of the jail and almost got away clean or dirty, if you please.

It took three guards to recapture Bernardo, a hefty 150-pounder at age 15 months. He finally was subdued when busy traffic blocked him from crossing a street.

Now he is back in jail, and facing that date in the bath house.

Bernardo is serving a life term, imposed earlier this month by a Circuit Court judge on a charge of mopery with intent to gawk. When he entered jail, he got the full treatment accorded all new prisoners, from paw prints to mug shots.

There's a rumor that Bernardo is really the jail mascot. Which is probably why Warden Johnson smiled when he said:

"Dog, or no dog, his case will come before the jail disciplinary board. I suspect his dog biscuit privileges will be suspended indefinitely."

about his outside financial and business dealings.

When President Johnson was the Senate Democratic leader, Baker was his right-hand man and the committee's investigations ballooned into an issue in last fall's election campaign. Republicans accused the Democrats of a cover-up and a whitewash.

Baker, who accumulated a claimed fortune of over $2 million while on the Senate pay roll at $19,600 a year, invoked his Fifth Amendment protection and refused to answer questions when called as a witness.

A former page boy from Pickens, S.C., he was found "guilty of many gross improprieties" by the Rules Committee in a report last July. It said he had used his Senate office "as if it were a private business office."

Testimony brought out that he had interests in insurance, vending machines, motels, meat imports and other enterprises and had made some highly profitable stock purchases.

After the committee's report last July, Williams forced a reopening of the investigation with a Senate speech charging a political payoff by Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia contractor and former ambassador to Ireland, on the District of Columbia Stadium project.

Williams said that McCloskey had made a $35,000 overpayment on the performance bond on the stadium and that $25,000 of this had been channeled through Baker to the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance man, later swore he was the "bag man" and kept $10,000 for handling the money. But McCloskey made a sworn denial of the charge and testified the overpayment was a "goof" by his company.

Others who figured prominently in the reopened investigation included lobbyist friends of Baker and Walter Jenkins, one of Johnson's top aides, who resigned at the President's request during last fall's presidential campaign after disclosure Jenkins twice had been arrested on morals charges.

On the advice of psychiatrists, the committee excused Jenkins from testifying but he answered written questions under oath and denied pressuring Reynolds into buying $1,208 worth of advertising time on an Austin, Tex., television station controlled by the Johnson family.

No Dip Expected Soon For Food Item Prices

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Marketing experts say there is no immediate relief in sight for housewives now stretching their budgets to meet higher food prices, especially on meat and potatoes.

The shopper who hunts for bargains and specials at grocery stores seems destined to pay premium prices for those two key items of the average American's diet, probably for some time to come.

One expert, Mrs. Estelle Franks of Columbus, a food marketing extension agent, says prices really are not too much out of line. But she adds that some items can tax the pocketbooks of budget - minded shoppers.

Mrs. Franks cites cost of living figures which show the index up 1.4 per cent during the last year. Food prices increased 1.5 per cent during the same period.

"We forget that the wages over this period have risen faster than food prices," she said. "We're still spending a little under 19 per cent of the take-home pay for food." Her figures show it was 25 per cent 15 years ago.

But Mrs. Franks noted a sharp price decline for some items, especially vegetables. The shortage of labor to pick crops sent lettuce prices soaring recently to as high as 59 cents a head.

But local vegetable crops are beginning to flood markets and prices of head lettuce, she says, have dropped to about 15 to 20 cents a head.

Mrs. Franks says the outlook is good for snap beans, cabbage, corn, celery and tomatoes.

Potatoes are another story. Last fall's frost damaged the crop and created a shortage. Mrs. Franks said prices settled a couple of weeks ago but there is not much hope for a major decrease until the new crop comes in this fall.

The U. S. Agriculture Department estimates that farm product prices increased 2 per cent during the month ending June 15.

Big demands and a livestock shortage were blamed.

Thomson said that it will take time for farmers to build up their supply for marketing.

Prime steers brought $23.75 to $25.50 per hundredweight in June 1964 but are now selling for $28.50 to $29.30. Hogs have jumped roughly from $18 to $25. Choice lamb has increased from about $22 to $25.

The poultry outlook is excellent. Prices have increased only a fraction of a cent since last year. Prices paid at terminal points are still running about 6½ to 26¾ cents a pound.

East Ohio Denies Union's Charges

CLEVELAND (AP)—The East Ohio Gas Co. has denied an accusation by two officials of the AFL-CIO Cleveland Fderation of Labor that it provoked a strike by Local 555 of the Natural Gas Workers Union.

The accusation was made Tuesday by Patrik J. O'Malley, president of the federation, and Sebastian Lupica, executive secretary, in a statement supporting the union in its 15-day-old strike.

O'Malley said, "It was demands of the company—not the union — that provoked this strike."

He also said the company is "responsible for endangering the entire community by operating its system with a skeleton of untrained personnel."

East Ohio said the union called the strike in spite of efforts of company negotiators to continue contract talks past the strike deadline of June 15.

No Dip Expected Soon For Food Item Prices

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Marketing experts say there is no immediate relief in sight for housewives now stretching their budgets to meet higher food prices, especially on meat and potatoes.

The shopper who hunts for bargains and specials at grocery stores seems destined to pay premium prices for those two key items of the average American's diet, probably for some time to come.

One expert, Mrs. Estelle Franks of Columbus, a food marketing extension agent, says prices really are not too much out of line. But she adds that some items can tax the pocketbooks of budget - minded shoppers.

Mrs. Franks cites cost of living figures which show the index up 1.4 per cent during the last year. Food prices increased 1.5 per cent during the same period.

"We forget that the wages over this period have risen faster than food prices," she said. "We're still spending a little under 19 per cent of the take-home pay for food." Her figures show it was 25 per cent 15 years ago.

But Mrs. Franks noted a sharp price decline for some items, especially vegetables. The shortage of labor to pick crops sent lettuce prices soaring recently to as high as 59 cents a head.

But local vegetable crops are beginning to flood markets and prices of head lettuce, she says, have dropped to about 15 to 20 cents a head.

Mrs. Franks says the outlook is good for snap beans, cabbage, corn, celery and tomatoes.

Potatoes are another story. Last fall's frost damaged the crop and created a shortage. Mrs. Franks said prices settled a couple of weeks ago but there is not much hope for a major decrease until the new crop comes in this fall.

The U. S. Agriculture Department estimates that farm product prices increased 2 per cent during the month ending June 15.

Big demands and a livestock shortage were blamed.

Thomson said that it will take time for farmers to build up their supply for marketing.

Prime steers brought $23.75 to $25.50 per hundredweight in June 1964 but are now selling for $28.50 to $29.30. Hogs have jumped roughly from $18 to $25. Choice lamb has increased from about $22 to $25.

The poultry outlook is excellent. Prices have increased only a fraction of a cent since last year. Prices paid at terminal points are still running about 6½ to 26¾ cents a pound.

Schools Due Protests On Segregation

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Demonstrations protesting de facto racial segregation will mark the opening of public schools next September in 24 Northern and Western states, the director for education of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said today.

The director, June Shagaloff, discussing target areas at the 56th annual NAACP convention, said:

"Boston school officials have refused to act; Bridgeport, Conn., will certainly be considered among Northern systems where meaningful corrective action has not been taken."

In New York State, Roosevelt, Mount Vernon, and Buffalo were listed as possible sites for school demonstrations. Chicago and Portland, Ore., are other localities "to mention only a few," Miss Shagaloff said.

Dr. Buell Gallagher, president of the City College of New York, told the convention Tuesday night the civil rights drive could leave behind "deep and angry scars" or "unity and serenity."

"This is the choice to be made," the white educator said. "It is ours to make, in this generation."

Gallagher said goals of the drive were "liberty, fraternity, and equality," and none of the three could stand successfully alone.

2 Ohioans Face Smuggling Trial Over War Relics

CLEVELAND (AP) — An Army major and a Cleveland wallpaper salesman are charged with smuggling thousands of dollars worth of war relics and arms into this country in an indictment returned Tuesday by the federal grand jury.

Indicted were Maj. James P. Atwood, 36, former intelligence officer in West Berlin and now of Arlington, Va., and Richard R. Raidl, 35. Each was indicted on 21 counts of smuggling the relics and arms between September, 1960, and April, 1964.

According to the indictment, Raidl sold the relics in the arms souvenir shop he formerly operated in suburban Independence.

ABC-TV's Fall Specials

NEW YORK — Phil d'Antoni of d'Antoni-Baer Productions, Inc., is in Hollywood talking with singer Jack Jones about an ABC-TV special for the fall. It may escalate into a series, the producer says.

D'Antoni has set a starting shooting date, Aug. 14, for the Rex Harrison in Paris special he and Norman Baer have plotted as a sequel to their TV pairing of famous names and places (Elizabeth Taylor-London, Sophia Loren - Rome, Melina Mercouri-Greece).

The Paris show will be as light and human as it can be, d'Antoni said. Beginning at the Paris apartment of Harrison and his wife, Rachel Roberts, the show will go through a typical Harrison weekend in the City of Light. It will air late November or December.

On the home front, Baer has finished filming "Wild, Wild East" and started production of "Proud Land" today. They are regional documentary specials of America slated for ABC telecast about Thanksgiving and Christmas.

THE EXPANSION of "Peyton Place" to three-a-week (Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays) has overburdened no one connected with the ABC-TV nighttime soap opera, the executive producer said.

"We work more and make more money," Paul Monash admitted, "but the most anyone works is a total of 30 hours a week."

"We haven't changed the pace and we modified the story much less than we thought we'd have to," he added. "Our basic problem, because we're on 52 weeks a year, is getting ahead so everyone can have a vacation."

The show films 12 weeks ahead.

MAIL CONTINUES to average more than 1,000 letters and cards a week, the producer said. About 75 per cent of the correspondents identify strongly with one or more of the story's characters.

Most of them treat the fictional characters as real, he said, asking the roles and not the actors for photographs and autographs. The more sophisticated advise the actor, "If I were you, I would not let Rodney...."

Loath to speak of future events in the cliff hanger, Monash nevertheless revealed an item. He said that after the weddings of Constance and Allison, the program will enter a new phase of heavy emphasis on the Harrington boys. But Allison, played by Mia Farrow, is still single.

A TRIBUTE to Sean O'Casey, the Irish playwright who died last year, will be telecast by the National Educational Television network on its "Creative Person" series the week of July 11.

Actors Dermot McNamara, Carmen Mathews, Anne Meara and Fred J. Scollay will act scenes from O'Casey plays — "Purple Dust," "Shadow of a Gunman," "Juno and the Paycock" and "Bedtime Story" — and read from the O'Casey essays and multivolumned autobiography.

Folk singer Liam Clancy, youngest of the Clancy Brothers, will provide interludes of Irish music.

GOP Group Supports Pay Hike For Military

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Republican policy committee has backed the $1-billion annual pay increase for the armed forces that was approved by the House Armed Services Committee.

Rep. John Rhodes of Arizona, chairman of the GOP policy group, acknowledged Tuesday that the bill carried twice as much money as the administration had proposed. But he said saving on military pay was not good economy.

Prepares To Adjourn

Ohio Legislature Sends Key Bills To Gov. Rhodes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Passage on time of vital spending measures has taken pressure off Ohio lawmakers and cleared the air for possible final adjournment of the legislature in two weeks.

Major appropriations bills to run the state for the 1965-67 biennium went to Gov. James A. Rhodes Tuesday well ahead of the fiscal deadline of midnight tonight.

The governor was expected to sign the bills today to avert delays in state checks and other obligations due with the start of the new fiscal year Thursday.

Final legislative action on the $1.5 billion general appropriations bills came on House concurrence to Senate amendments, while the Senate went along with House changes in the $891 million Highway-Highway Safety appropriations bill.

With the big spending bills out of the way, lawmakers immediately turned to other programs and predicted a speedy windup of the legislative session that began in January.

House Speaker Roger W. Cloud, R-Logan, said there may be an unusual Friday session this week to revive school foundation measure, one of the major obstacles to adjournment. This would allow printing over the weekend and a floor vote early next week.

Other legislation in for immediate attention include House approved welfare reorganization along with Senate-passed "fair housing" and school bus measures awaiting House consideration.

Legislative leaders also listed strip mine and nursing home regulation among proposals due for a shove. A bill to increase and inspect nursing and rest homes, approved last month by the House, was recommended for passage Tuesday night by the Senate State Government Committee.

An emergency act to make permanent Ohio's Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed program was among seven bills winning House approval at a busy session Tuesday. A 129-0 vote sent the bill to the Senate.

The Senate passed a half-dozen measures, including a proposal aimed at destroying operations of the Ku Klux Klan in Ohio. The bill by Sens. Ray T. Miller Jr., D-Cuyahoga, and Michael J. Maloney, R-Hamilton, would outlaw the wearing of masks except for halloween and legitimate masquerade purposes.

An administration bill extending from April 1 to April 16 the deadline for purchase of auto license tags was sent to the House on a 27-1 vote.

In other developments, the House passed a Senate bill erasing a requirement for an exempted village school district to include all territory within the corporate limit of a village of 2,000 or more population.

The House also approved bills to:

— Ban boycotts against farmers solely for membership in marketing associations.

—Conform the legal length of fish filets to the size limits of fish caught.

Heads For Mt. Ararat

American Launches 5th Search For Noah's Ark

The persistent Libi is making his fifth mission to find the ark which supposedly was beached on Mt. Ararat after the flood.

"This time I hope will be successful," said Libi, of San Francisco.

Libi, strong and spry despite his 69 years, wants particularly to explore three stone corrals perched on the shoulder of the 16,946-foot high peak, about 500 feet from the top. He believes these stone fences were built by the inhabitants of the ark or their descendents to mark the place the ship touched down.

The middle corral, about 60x120 feet, will be the main target of the Libi expedition. His workers will dig below the snow into debris and stone.

He hopes to find the ark remains in the form of petrified wood. Mt. Ararat was once a volcano that erupted in a mighty explosion, Libi said.

"If the explosion took place after the ark landed on the mountains," Libi said, "there's no chance in the world of finding it. But I believe the ark landed after the eruption."

Libi's 25-man expedition expects to be on the mountain in late July. Using mules, they will make their base camp at about 3,000 feet and another one at 7,-000.

Libi's last attempt at getting to Ararat, located on the Turkish-Soviet border, failed when the Turkish government, still edgy over the May 1962 abortive coup d'etat, denied him permission to travel to eastern Turkey.

Prepares To Adjourn

Ohio Legislature Sends Key Bills To Gov. Rhodes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Passage on time of vital spending measures has taken pressure off Ohio lawmakers and cleared the air for possible final adjournment of the legislature in two weeks.

Major appropriations bills to run the state for the 1965-67 biennium went to Gov. James A. Rhodes Tuesday well ahead of the fiscal deadline of midnight tonight.

The governor was expected to sign the bills today to avert delays in state checks and other obligations due with the start of the new fiscal year Thursday.

Final legislative action on the $1.5 billion general appropriations bills came on House concurrence to Senate amendments, while the Senate went along with House changes in the $891 million Highway-Highway Safety appropriations bill.

With the big spending bills out of the way, lawmakers immediately turned to other programs and predicted a speedy windup of the legislative session that began in January.

House Speaker Roger W. Cloud, R-Logan said there may be an unusual Friday session this week to revive school foundation measure, one of the major obstacles to adjournment. This would allow printing over the weekend and a floor vote early next week.

Other legislation in for immediate attention include House approved welfare reorganization along with Senate-passed "fair housing" and school bus measures awaiting House consideration.

Legislative leaders also listed strip mine and nursing home regulation among proposals due for a shove. A bill to increase and inspect nursing and rest homes, approved last month by the House, was recommended for passage Tuesday night by the Senate State Government Committee.

An emergency act to make permanent Ohio's Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed program was among seven bills winning House approval at a busy session Tuesday. A 129-0 vote sent the bill to the Senate.

The Senate passed a half-dozen measures, including a proposal aimed at destroying operations of the Ku Klux Klan in Ohio. The bill by Sens. Ray T. Miller Jr., Cuyahoga, and Michael J. Maloney, R-Hamilton, would outlaw the wearing of masks except for halloween and legitimate masquerade purposes.

An administration bill extending from April 1 to April 16 the deadline for purchase of auto license tags was sent to the House on a 27-1 vote.

In other developments, the House passed a Senate bill erasing a requirement for an exempted village school district to include all territory within the corporate limit of a village of 2,000 or more population.

The House also approved bills to:

— Ban boycotts against farmers solely for membership in marketing associations.

American Launches 5th Search For Noah's Ark

The persistent Libi is making his fifth mission to find the ark which supposedly was beached on Mt. Ararat after the flood.

"This time I hope will be successful," said Libi, of San Francisco.

Libi, strong and spry despite his 69 years, wants particularly to explore three stone corrals perched on the shoulder of the 16,946-foot high peak, about 500 feet from the top. He believes these stone fences were built by the inhabitants of the ark or their descendents to mark the place the ship touched down.

The middle corral, about 60x120 feet, will be the main target of the Libi expedition. His workers will dig below the snow into debris and stone.

He hopes to find the ark remains in the form of petrified wood. Mt. Ararat was once a volcano that erupted in a mighty explosion, Libi said.

"If the explosion took place after the ark landed on the mountains," Libi said, "there's no chance in the world of finding it. But I believe the ark landed after the eruption."

Libi's 25-man expedition expects to be on the mountain in late July. Using mules, they will make their base camp at about 3,000 feet and another one at 7,000.

Libi's last attempt at getting to Ararat, located on the Turkish-Soviet border, failed when the Turkish government, still edgy over the May 1962 abortive coup d'etat, denied him permission to travel to eastern Turkey.

Certificates Are Presented Camp Fire Girls Officials

Certificates of appreciation were presented five retiring members of the executive board of Kmoka Council of the Camp Fire Girls Monday night at the Bryan Recreation Center.

The five recognized, who also performed various services for area Girl Scouts, were Mrs. David Belaty, former president; Mrs. Donald Ogilvie, former president and retiring secretary; Mrs. Marvin Kinsey, former vice president and chairman of the properties committee; Mrs. H. Fred Banfield, former program and group organization chairman, and Mrs. Caesar Peters, who served in many capacities, including her most recent as member of the group organization committee.

The certificates were presented by Sidney Porter Jr., retiring president and first male president of the group.

Porter was then presented with a desk set of American and Campfire Girls flags in recognition of his being one of the first men to be actively engaged in the Camp Fire Girls program. Mrs. Larry Walton, incoming president, made the presentation.

Recognition, in the form of membership service emblems, also was accorded 17 members for one, two or three years of continuous service.

Honored were Mrs. Evelyn Dabler, Mrs. Ann Kirkbride, Mrs. Avenell Andrews, Mrs. Pat Huddleston, Mrs. Saundra Roush, Miss Peggy Hill, Mrs. Donna Allison, Mrs. Shirley Leonard, Mrs. Roberta Lucas, Mrs. Elizabeth Lovell, Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Jane Carter, Mrs. Richard Martin, Mrs. Beverly Grey, Mrs. Peryl Payne, Mrs. Mary Margaret Walker and Mrs. Mary Galloway.

A coverdish picnic followed the meeting, with Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Robert Schlang, Mrs. Jack Talbott and Mrs. Jack Chadwick acting as hostesses.

Games and other recreational activities were supervised by Mrs. Charles Lang. A brief executive board meeting was conducted by Porter.

Mrs. Eugene Seeley reported that plans have been completed for three weeks of day-and-stay camps beginning July 5 at Camp Echo Dell on the Bell School Rd. near Beaver Creek State Park.

The camps will be for girls of Bluebird, Campfire and Junior High ages, with girls from the Horizon Club acting as assistant adult counselors. Mrs. Seeley said that a daily bus to and from the camp will leave East End at 8:45 a. m. each day.

The next executive board meeting will be Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at Porter's home on Broadview Circle. The next regular meeting of the council will be July 26 at 7:30 p. m. at the Bryan Recreation Center.

Warnings Given On Firecrackers Eaten For Candy

NEW YORK (AP) — Authorities around the nation are seizing cracker balls, tiny pellets which can explode when bitten.

The brightly colored firecrackers—about three-eighths of an inch in diameter—can be lethal when swallowed. The death of at least one child has been blamed on the pellets which look like candy.

The nearness to the Fourth of July, with its traditional use of fireworks, has accelerated the crackdowns.

Nine children throughout the country have been injured because they mistook the cracker balls for candy, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health said Tuesday.

The department warned parents and retailers to be on the alert for the cracker balls, made with an outer coating of papier-mache material. The pellets are made to explode when thrown against a hard surface.

A Massachusetts official said inspectors had confiscated 450 boxes of the pellets under the state's hazardous labeling act. "To date," the official said, "nine cases of oral and dental injury have resulted in the country because these fireworks explode when bitten."

The barnacle seeks out a solid object and grips it with a pair of head appendages. The little animal secretes a cement that attaches it permanently, head down and starts to build a shell.

Domer Indicted On Fraud Counts

CLEVELAND (AP)— Robert K. Domer of Canton accused slayer of an Akron fruit peddler has been indicted by a federal grand jury on seven counts of fraud and one count of embezzlement.

The grand jury also indicted his wife, Evelyn, for falsifying, concealing and covering up Domer's records by making photostatic copies of false bank statements.

The indictments, returned Tuesday, charge Domer with making false banking statements and embezzling $10,000 while custodian of the records of the Equitable Mortgage Co.

Domer, a former Canton businessman, was convicted in the April 1963 slaying of Howard F. Riddle, 54, of Akron. A retrial is scheduled Sept. 20. He also is charged with forgery, but a trial on that charge is being delayed pending an appeal.

Drought Brings Starvation Over Southern Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The effects of prolonged drought over large areas of southern Africa are fast approaching disaster proportions, according to scattered reports reaching Johannesburg.

Bechuanaland, a Texas-sized country to the north of South Africa, is worst hit. Reports from the capital, Gaberones, say the government is nearing the end of its resources in its efforts to avoid a national tragedy following three to four years of severe drought — up to seven years in some parts.

It has launched a crash program to combat triple assaults by even worse drought, famine and disease expected to hit the country during July. The worst of the dry winter season, which lasts until September, is still to come.

No official figures are obtainable on how many persons have died of starvation. Government officials report that in some areas people can no longer walk.

It is feared that cattle losses will be more than 250,000 head during the next few months. Bechuanaland is almost entirely dependent on cattle ranching for its livelihood.

Maine Town Set To Salute Dump In Special Fete

KENNEBUNKPORT, Maine (AP) — The Kennebunkport Dump Association is a refuge for those interested in refuse.

"We started this thing several years ago," said Mayo, "as a fun outfit with parties at the dump in summer and foul weather operations in winter."

A dump salute was adopted. It requires holding your nose with the left hand and waving with the right.

A National Dump Week will be held this year from July 2 through Labor Day, Mayo said.

The dump week will include a rat shoot at the town dump — "a time for us to get together;" a parade which will involve loading cars with some "high-class" garbage, such as used fur coats, old paintings and empty champagne bottles.

"We will also have a Miss Dumpy contest," said Mayo.

Leader Quits Canada Post Over Inquiry

OTTAWA (AP)—Chief Justice Frederic Dorion's inquiry into the Lucien Rivard bribery scandal has resulted in the resignation of Justice Minister Guy Favreau, but Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson says that is "only the first scene of the first act."

Favreau resigned Tuesday night after Quebec's chief justice criticized him for dropping an investigation into an alleged offer of a $20,000 bribe to a prosecutor would help get bail for Rivard, wanted in the United States on narcotics charges.

Pearson said he would give Favreau another Cabinet post but that the justice department would look into the possibility of criminal charges against others assailed by Dorion.

Pearson added that his government wants to "deal with the sinister and growing involvement of crime in politics."

He said that Favreau, 47, a lawyer who is considered a top contender to succeed Pearson, would also continue to lead the Liberal party in Quebec Province. He said the Cabinet had given Favreau a vote of confidence and that his integrity remained unsullied.

Favreau said Dorion's findings amounted to no more than a statement that the chief justice "would have exercised his discretion in a different fashion" had he been the justice minister.

"My resignation was tendered, not out of a feeling that I had done anything wrong, but because of the feeling that my usefulness as minister of justice had been impaired," Favreau said.

Dorion criticized Favreau for deciding on his own to stop an investigation into an allegation by Montreal lawyer Pierre Lamontagne that a high government official offered him the bribe to drop his opposition to bail for Rivard. Dorion said Favreau should have instructed his legal advisers to make a full study of the case.

Rivard, 49, is wanted in Texas as the alleged kingpin of a multi - million - dollar heroin smuggling operation. He escaped from a Montreal jail March 2 and is still at large.

2 Escapees Will Face Charge Of Kidnaping

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Kidnaping charges have been issued against two Lorain County jailbreakers accused of abducting Argel Wilson of Boardman after their escape last Thursday. The two, Leroy J. Scharf, 19, of Lorain, and Charles Twyman, 18, of Elyria, are accused of forcing Wilson to drive them to Columbiana County, making him leave the car and taking the car south. They were arrested west of Steubenville Friday. They were among the five prisoners who escaped.

"WHAT A WAY TO GO"

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Control Weight With Science, Judgment

If slimming were easy there wouldn't be so many Americans threatened with embonpoint. Nobody wants to be burdened with excess poundage. Fat is untidy and in hot weather it can be uncomfortable. But of far greater significance is the health menace. It is apparent that nature did not intend for us to have too great a reserve of adipose tissue, for she made no provision for using it efficiently. Excess fat is a handicap for the body has to tote the load.

Ida Jean Kain

With obesity on the increase, it is evident that we are not dealing intelligently with our number one nutritional problem. On - again, off - again dieting is clearly not the solution.

—:—

IF REDUCING is an uphill struggle for you, why not apply science to your everyday ways of eating? Slighting breakfast, going light at lunch, and relaxing with a big meal at dinner is peculiarly at variance with the way nature uses food for fuel. Furthermore, research studies show that overeating at one time is not in the interest of health, reducing or weight control.

Until fairly recently not much has been known about how the rate of calorie ingestion can alter the way food stuffs are metabolized. When food is apportioned in small, easily handled loads, energy is provided at an even rate. The body is not overwhelmed with excess food at any one time, and thus the laying down of excess fat in the tissues is avoided. It is this excess of food - into - fat that is associated with chronic degenerative diseases.

It makes abiding good sense not to overeat at any one time. Aside from avoiding the overload, eating smaller meals definitely helps cut appetite down to size. You re-train your appestat. Ere long, you get accustomed to eating less at a meal, then the temptation to overeat diminishes. Actually it isn't pleasant to eat until surfeited, for 20 to 30 minutes later you feel stuffed, dull and uncomfortable. That's when you want to let out your belt.

MAKE PROTEIN the backbone of each of the three meals, for the timing on protein is important. To cut ahead of hunger, have a protective pick - up in the late afternoon.

People who keep their weight normal do not "diet" strictly. They have good food, but they are not likely to overeat at any one meal. Adopt their plan. Avoid an overload at any one meal and nature will work with you to build a lean, lithe body.

To cut your appetite down to right size, get up from the table before you have overeaten. Say to yourself, "Anything else I eat now will be laid down as fat!"

Send stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Keep In Trim

Control Weight With Science, Judgment

If slimming were easy there wouldn't be so many Americans threatened with embonpoint. Nobody wants to be burdened with excess poundage. Fat is untidy and in hot weather it can be uncomfortable. But of far greater significance is the health menace. It is apparent that nature did not intend for us to have too great a reserve of adipose tissue, for she made no provision for using it efficiently. Excess fat is a handicap for the body has to tote the load.

Ida Jean Kain

With obesity on the increase, it is evident that we are not dealing intelligently with our number one nutritional problem. On - again, off - again dieting is clearly not the solution.

—:—

IF REDUCING is an uphill struggle for you, why not apply science to your everyday ways of eating? Slighting breakfast, going light at lunch, and relaxing with a big meal at dinner is peculiarly at variance with the way nature uses food for fuel. Furthermore, research studies show that overeating at one time is not in the interest of health, reducing or weight control.

Until fairly recently not much has been known about how the rate of calorie ingestion can alter the way food stuffs are metabolized. When food is apportioned in small, easily handled loads, energy is provided at an even rate. The body is not overwhelmed with excess food at any one time, and thus the laying down of excess fat in the tissues is avoided. It is this excess of food - into - fat that is associated with chronic degenerative diseases.

It makes abiding good sense not to overeat at any one time. Aside from avoiding the overload, eating smaller meals definitely helps cut appetite down to size. You re-train your appestat. Ere long, you get accustomed to eating less at a meal, then the temptation to overeat diminishes. Actually it isn't pleasant to eat until surfeited, for 20 to 30 minutes later you feel stuffed, dull and uncomfortable. That's when you want to let out your belt.

MAKE PROTEIN the backbone of each of the three meals, for the timing on protein is important. To cut ahead of hunger, have a protective pick - up in the late afternoon.

People who keep their weight normal do not "diet" strictly. They have good food, but they are not likely to overeat at any one meal. Adopt their plan. Avoid an overload at any one meal and nature will work with you to build a lean, lithe body.

To cut your appetite down to right size, get up from the table before you have overeaten. Say to yourself, "Anything else I eat now will be laid down as fat!"

Send stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Officer Nabs 3 For Rifling Coin Machine

The suspects, two 17 and one 16, are due to appear at City Hall today before Juvenile Officer James Miller on charges they stole the coin receptacle from a machine at Chadwick's Sohio Service Station, 1508 Lisbon St., opposite the Pleasant Heights School. Richard T. Chadwick is the proprietor.

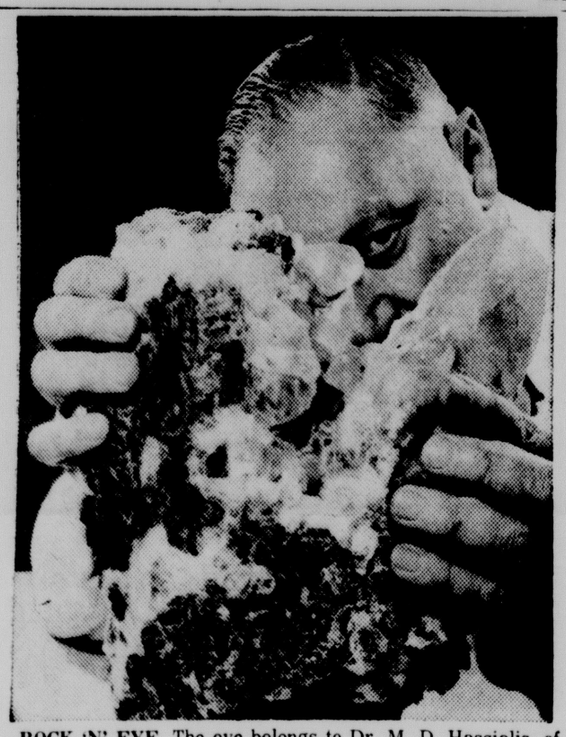
Walsh said he pulled into the station in a cruiser for a routine check at 1:58 this morning when he saw one of the 17-year-olds lying at the rear of the vending machine, attempting to conceal himself. Two other figures disappeared down a hillside at the rear of the station.

The officer said he checked and found that the coin receptacle had been removed from the machine. He estimated it contained $3 to $4. Chadwick was called and took custody of the money.

There was no sign of a forcible entry of the machine, indicating a key was used to remove the money box, the officer said.

The patrolman talked with the 17-year-old and learned the names of his two companions. They were found at the home of one of the boys, where the trio had been spending the night.

The boys said they had been drinking beer earlier in the evening and decided to rifle the machine, the officer reported. There was no attempt to enter the station proper.



ROCK 'N' EYE. The eye belongs to Dr. M. D. Hassialis, of Columbia's School of Mines. He's checking mineral specimens that are being given to the famed French mining school, L'Ecole des Mines.

Cigarette Use Climbs Past '64 Report Level

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says cigarette smoking has jumped above the level it reached before the government report on smoking and health.

The department estimated cigarette consumption at 533 billion in the fiscal year ending today. That's 24 billion more than in the last fiscal year when consumption dipped 8 billion after the report was released.

William W. Carman, 80, Ravenna, $15 bond for stop sign violation.

Forfeiting $15 bonds for speeding were:

Red Scientist Taken

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet chemical physicist and echnologist, Prof. Isak I. Kitaygorodsky, 78, is dead, the newspaper Izvestia said Tuesday.

Magnuson Offers Bill For Bird Protection

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Warren G. Magnuson has introduced a bill which would provide natural sanctuaries for native birds, fish and mammals threatened with extinction.

The Washington Democrat said the Interior Department had reported the vanishing of 24 species and subspecies of American birds and 12 mammals. He said 35 more mammals and 30 to 40 species of native birds are threatened with early extermination.

Sec. Connor Reports New Economy Peaks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor says the U.S. economy had a good advance in the April-June period.

Connor said new peaks were registered by such economic measures as personal income, employment, industrial production and retail sales.

Asked at a news conference Tuesday whether there was anything which did not look bright, he replied with a smile: "The stock market."

Of the 1,867,640 cars made in the United Kingdom in 1964, about 79,100 were exported to the United States.

Critics Rap TV Show On Poverty War

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Shameful," "Degrading," "Immoral," "Lousy," and "Double lousy," said the Republican senators.

Those were some of the adjectives they applied Tuesday to a 90-minute rock 'n' roll type film about the administration's anti-poverty program which was shown on the CBS television network Tuesday night.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, and Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., led the verbal attack. Allott said he phoned the president of CBS and told him, "I am about to throw up."

But here's what Holmes Brown, speaking for the Office of Economic Opportunity headed by Sargent Shriver, had to say in the film's defense:

"My three children saw the program and liked it. I saw nothing immoral, degrading or shameful about it, and neither did my son, who is preparing for the ministry.

"Our purpose was to reach a section of the population between 16 and 22. Knowing that they watch TV a lot, particularly rock 'n' roll shows, we knew we would be able to attract that group.

"We were pleasantly surprised it drew such a big audience, and if nothing else, it revealed the wide popularity of rock 'n' roll."

Brown emphasized that no government money was spent on the program. He said CBS donated the 90 minutes of network time and the performers donated their services.

The film was called "It's What's Happening, Baby." It was described as aimed at acquainting teen-agers with the antipoverty work of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

U.S. Probes Policies On Life Of AID Man

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agency for International Development is investigating the issuance of two $10,000 insurance policies taken on the life of an AID officer captured in February by the Communist Viet Cong.

John Kane, in the public information office of the agency, said the policies were issued on the life of AID officer Gustav C. Hertz, 46, of Leesburg, Va., who headed the public administration office in Saigon.

Kane said another AID employe applied for the policies, listing himself as beneficiary. The employe was being flown from Viet Nam to Washington for questioning.

He was quoted as saying he took out the policies to help the Hertz family in case Hertz was killed, Kane said.

The Republican Outlook

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — This is a sort of era of good feelings between Republicans and Democrats but the last thing Republicans want is the kind of "era of good feelings" that developed under President James Monroe.

Nevertheless, still trying to get up off their backs after the catastrophe which hit them in the 1964 elections, the Republicans don't sound brash about the future.

The Federalists, the party of Alexander Hamilton and John Adams and ancestors of present-day Republicans, began to slip after Thomas Jefferson and his followers won in 1800.

AT FIRST the Jeffersonians called themselves Republicans. They began calling themselves Democrats in 1828 and have been doing that ever since, thus making the Democrats the oldest political party in the country.

As the Republicans (Democrats) grew, the Federalists dwindled. Their opposition to the War of 1812 hurt them. So did internal dissension, an ailment which severely began afflicting present Republicans in 1964.

By the time Monroe moved into the White House in 1817, with hardly any opposition worth the name in sight, the era of good feelings began. Between 1800 and 1860 the Republicans (Democrats) lost only two elections.

Then came the turn of the new Republicans. They won the 1860 election and every election, with two exceptions, until 1912 when Democrat Woodrow Wilson broke their streak and did it again in 1916.

The Republicans fought back briefly, winning three elections in a row, starting in 1920. But in every election since 1932, except two, the Republicans have lost the presidency and controlled Congress only four years.

In the 1964 election they lost 68 House seats, 2 in the Senate, and held only 17 governorships out of 50. This was the 1964 election score in Congress: House—295 Democrats, 140 Republicans; Senate—68 Democrats, 32 Republicans.

It's hard to see how quietude will help them win in the 1966 congressional elections but here are two examples of Republicans' restrained optimism:

BEFORE THE 1964 elections Dean Burch, chairman of the Republican National Committee and close ally of GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, predicted Republicans would carry 28 or 29 states. They carried six.

Even after the election, but not long afterwards, he was predicting Republicans would win the presidency in 1968. But before the end of November 1964, a number of Republican leaders and groups wanted Burch out.

He soon seemed a changed man. On March 2, shortly before he left, he called attention to what he said was the "painful evidence of our status as a national political party."

For the past two days his successor as chairman, Ray C. Bliss, has been closeted with the national committee.

He said the committee members were "not cocky" about GOP chances and said the party can make gains only if it picks outstanding candidates and campaigns vigorously. He is aiming at big cities and the Negro vote.

Hearing Delayed For Second Time

A second continuance has been granted by Squire Eugene Allison of Chester in a case involving the proprietors and a waitress cited in raids June 15 by constables at the Hilltop Inn and the Cactus Bar, located near the intersection of Route 30 and Route 2 between Chester and the Pennsylvania line.

Allison postponed the hearings until July 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the request of Ed Zagula of Weirton, defense attorney.

The hearings were originally to have been held June 22, but were continued by Allison until yesterday due to the illness of some of the persons involved.

Charles Pittenger has been named as the proprietor of the Hilltop Inn and has been charged with the possession of alcoholic liquor.

The proprietor and a waitress at the nearby Cactus Bar, who were not identified, have been charged with the sale of beer without a license and the sale of whisky.

When you are making potato salad using small new waxy potatoes, you can usually count on three pounds of the vegetable serving nine persons.

Odd Facts

The cornerstone for the Massachusetts State House in Boston was laid July 4, 1795, by Gov. Samuel Adams, assisted by Paul Revere.

The Braves beat the Mets eight times in nine games in Milwaukee in 1964.

Dapper Dan, second in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness and fourth in the Belmont, could have been claimed for $12,500 on June 9, 1964.

Five American League umpires are natives of Pennsylvania — Nestor Chylak, Jim Honochick, Joe Paparella, John Rice and Johnny Stevens.

Southern Local Board Takes Two Key Actions

The relocating of some 35 students and action on a special election featured the special meeting of the Southern Local Board of Education Tuesday night.

The board decided to move the eighth-grade classes from the Wayne and Franklin Schools into the Salineville School for the next school term in an attempt to alleviate overcrowding.

About 35 students will be involved in the action, which will be on a one-year trial basis. About 80 eighth-graders now will attend classes at the Salineville School, with the board hoping eventually to have all of the eighth - graders in the same building.

It was decided to wait until November before submitting a special levy to the voters to provide for increased teacher salaries instead of asking for a special election this summer. The excessive cost of the summer election, from funds which are not available, was given as the main reason for waiting until November.

The board approved a drivers' training program to be initiated in the fall. Cost per pupil will be $6, according to Charles Allison, president, who said classroom work will take place during the winter months and the actual driving during the summer.

A payment of $1,553.38 on science equipment was approved and 1,000 gallons of oil were purchased from the Tri - State Asphalt Co. of Martins Ferry for $125. It will be used on driveways at the high school.

Allison presided. A public hearing will be heard on the budget at the next meeting, July 12, at the high school.

This 'n That

J. C. Martin of the Chicago White Sox led the American League in passed balls in 1964 with 24. In fairness to Martin, he catches knuckle ball pitchers Hoyt Wilhelm and Eddie Fisher.

Carnival Plans Begin By Firemen At Newell

Plans for the annual carnival July 17-24 were announced today by the Newell volunteer fire department.

Any civic organization wishing to sponsor a stand should contact a member of the carnival committee as soon as possible. Robert Duncan is chairman and Dick Rayburn, Vern Betteridge, Robert Stoneburner and Jim Raimond the other members.

The parade again will be one of the features. The department so far has contacted four musical organizations, including one high school band, two drum and bugle corps and one fife and drum corps.

Twenty - five parade entry applications have been received from various fire companies throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Organizations wishing to take part in the parade should contact Gene Lytton at 387-2445 or Robert Duncan at 387-2188 or other members of the parade committee, including Chuck Lee, Stoneburner or Kenny Arnott.

The time of the parade and the route will be announced later.

Pilot, Crew Get FAA Tribute In Saving Jet Plane

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A grateful Federal Aviation Agency, which supervises civilian aviation in the United States, presents special citations today to the pilot and crew of a crippled 707 jet.

Pilot Charles H. Kimes, 44, landed the Honolulu-bound Pan American jet with 143 passengers and a crew of 10 at Travis Air Force Base, Calif., after the craft dropped an engine and part of a wing shortly after takeoff Monday from San Francisco International Airport.

FAA Administrator N.E. Halaby said he would personally present the crew with the citations for "their masterful feat of airmanship."

Kimes' feat astonished even the manufacturers of the Boeing jet, who said the plane has never been tested for such an emergency.

College Project Starts

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — The first shovel of dirt was turned by Gov. James A. Rhodes Tuesday at groundbreaking for the Lorain County Community College to be located here.

Union Ends Picketing At Ohio Power Project

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) —Work on construction of the Cardinal Power Plant at nearby Brilliant, a joint venture of the Ohio Power Co. and Buckeye Power Co., was resumed Tuesday after picket lines were removed. Plant officials said members of Carpenters Union Local 186 remained off the job but agreed to stop picketing so that other crafts could return.

Representatives of the Carpenters Union and the Sollett Construction Co. are conducting talks aimed at ending a jurisdictional dispute between the carpenters and ironworkers.

South Side Boosters To Sponsor Festival

The South Side High School Band Boosters have made plans for a festival July 9-10 at the Hookstown Grange to raise money for band needs, including launching of a fund for new uniforms.

Mrs. William Noll, chairman, said the festival will run 6 to 11 p.m. both nights and feature game tents, auctions and refreshment stands.

Mrs. Charles Ryland, president, described the event as "the same as a street fair, but without the rides."

Midwest Hit By Rain, Hail

By The Associated Press

Violent thunderstorms loosed hurricane winds and downpours of rain and hail on parts of Kansas and Missouri early today.

Thunderstorms also hit other localities to the east along the advancing edge of a cool front which cut into hot, humid weather extending from Texas to New England.

More than an inch of rain and large hail were whipped into Kansas City, Mo., on 75-mile winds during the night. Atchison, Kan., was hit by hail termed by the Weather Bureau as large as golf balls. A funnel cloud dipped down near Columbia, Mo., but soon retreated into a towering thunderhead. No damage was reported.

Kearney, Neb., had one-inch hail flung by 60-mile winds. Farther east along the front Cincinnati, Ohio, was hit by heavy rain, with .52 inch measured in a single hour.

The cool air was eagerly awaited in New England and down the Atlantic Coast after a broiling day in the 90s over much of the region.

Newell Firemen Continue Drive

Additional sessions will be held today and Friday at 6:30 p. m. for canvassing residents of the Congo and State Route 66 area, along with those in the urban area who have not yet been contacted.

An application was received from Keith Wilson to join the department.

Earl Flesch presided.

Clark May Swing Over For Support Of Canal

Congressman Frank M. Clark, representing the 25th Congressional district of Pennsylvania, which includes Beaver, Butler and Lawrence counties, has said he will call a press conference in Beaver County some time in August to clarify his position on the controversial Lake Erie-Ohio River Canal.

Clark has indicated he may abandon his "neutrality" on the project and vote in favor of the canal.

Half of the $1 billion funds for the waterway would be spent in the three western Pennsylvania counties represented by Clark and a vote for the project would be a break with the rest of the Pennsylvania delegation. Pennsylvania's entire 12-member Republican delegation in Congress as well as all other western Pennsylvania congressmen have been opposed to the project.

Clark said he has launched a study to determine how much of a financial burden the canal will be to the various municipal taxing bodies and other governmental units along the route and has suggested that if all the local costs could be absorbed by the federal government and relocations could be handled without difficulty he could be in favor of the waterway.

He estimated that the cost to local governments in Beaver County would be $6 to $8 million, and about half that for those in Lawrence county.

Clark said he is "weighing all factors" and indicated the advantages and disadvantages to his district are pretty well balanced.

Senate Reduces Duty-Free Limits

WASHINGTON (AP)—American tourists in far away places with a yen to bring home such items as tablecloths from Dublin or glassware from Venice would have a reduced duty-free allowance under a bill passed by the Senate.

By a 61-31 vote Tuesday, it cut the duty-free allowance from the present $100 wholesale value to $100 retail value. The $100 wholesale value has been estimated as the equivalent of $167 retail value, so the reduction amounts to $67.

Like the House, the Senate didn't go as far as President Johnson wanted. In an effort to stem the flow of dollars abroad, wanted a duty-free limit of $50 retail.

The Treasury estimated the administration proposal would mean a balance of payments position improvement of about $100 million annually. It pegged the $100 retail limit savings at about $55 million.

Although House and Senate agree on a duty-free allowance figure, they differ on three other sections of the measure, thus sending it to a hurry-up conference.

Congo Marks Anniversary

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Congo celebrated its fifth birthday today with politicians crowing and the military marching. But the country's economy still is sickly.

Potentially it is one of Africa's richest countries, rich in industrial diamonds, copper, cobalt, uranium and other minerals. It has one of the world's great potentials for hydroelectric power, lush land and plentiful manpower.

But its economy is stagnant.

One reason is the lack of security. Rebellion has racked the vast central African territory since its first week of freedom in 1960.

Briton Says Red Premier Wants U.S. Friendship

MOSCOW (AP) — Reginald Maudling of the British Conservative party reported today after a meeting with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin that Kosygin "made it quite clear that he attached great importance to friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States and he regretted that in the present circumstances this was becoming more difficult."

"The present Soviet regime absolutely accepted the desirability of friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States," said Maudling, Conservative party foreign affairs expert.

Maudling told newsmen after an hour's meeting with Kosygin in the Kremlin that the premier took the view the Vietnamese war was caused by "American aggression" and that a solution required an American withdrawal.

Maudling was invited here by Soviet parliamentarians.

Workers Return At Cape Kennedy

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Printing and reproduction workers who staged a construction-strangling, six-day wildcat strike returned to their jobs today after agreeing to submit their dispute to arbitration.

Locals 780 and 666 of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employes (AFL-CIO) voted unanimously Tuesday night to end picketing.

Carnival Plans Begin By Firemen At Newell

Plans for the annual carnival July 17-24 were announced today by the Newell volunteer fire department.

Any civic organization wishing to sponsor a stand should contact a member of the carnival committee as soon as possible. Robert Duncan is chairman and Dick Rayburn, Vern Betteridge, Robert Stoneburner and Jim Raimond the other members.

The parade again will be one of the features. The department so far has contacted four musical organizations, including one high school band, two drum and bugle corps and one fife and drum corps.

Twenty - five parade entry applications have been received from various fire companies throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Organizations wishing to take part in the parade should contact Gene Lytton at 387-2445 or Robert Duncan at 387-2188 or other members of the parade committee, including Chuck Lee, Stoneburner or Kenny Arnott.

The time of the parade and the route will be announced later.

Pilot, Crew Get FAA Tribute In Saving Jet Plane

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A grateful Federal Aviation Agency, which supervises civilian aviation in the United States, presents special citations today to the pilot and crew of a crippled 707 jet.

Pilot Charles H. Kimes, 44, landed the Honolulu-bound Pan American jet with 143 passengers and a crew of 10 at Travis Air Force Base, Calif., after the craft dropped an engine and part of a wing shortly after takeoff Monday from San Francisco International Airport.

FAA Administrator N.E. Halaby said he would personally present the crew with the citations for "their masterful feat of airmanship."

Kimes' feat astonished even the manufacturers of the Boeing jet, who said the plane has never been tested for such an emergency.

College Project Starts

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — The first shovel of dirt was turned by Gov. James A. Rhodes Tuesday at groundbreaking for the Lorain County Community College to be located here.

Union Ends Picketing At Ohio Power Project

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) —Work on construction of the Cardinal Power Plant at nearby Brilliant, a joint venture of the Ohio Power Co. and Buckeye Power Co., was resumed Tuesday after picket lines were removed. Plant officials said members of Carpenters Union Local 186 remained off the job but agreed to stop picketing so that other crafts could return.

Representatives of the Carpenters Union and the Sollett Construction Co. are conducting talks aimed at ending a jurisdictional dispute between the carpenters and ironworkers.

South Side Boosters To Sponsor Festival

The South Side High School Band Boosters have made plans for a festival July 9-10 at the Hookstown Grange to raise money for band needs, including launching of a fund for new uniforms.

Mrs. William Noll, chairman, said the festival will run 6 to 11 p.m. both nights and feature game tents, auctions and refreshment stands.

Mrs. Charles Ryland, president, described the event as "the same as a street fair, but without the rides."

Midwest Hit By Rain, Hail

By The Associated Press

Violent thunderstorms loosed hurricane winds and downpours of rain and hail on parts of Kansas and Missouri early today.

Thunderstorms also hit other localities to the east along the advancing edge of a cool front which cut into hot, humid weather extending from Texas to New England.

More than an inch of rain and large hail were whipped into Kansas City, Mo., on 75-mile winds during the night. Atchison, Kan., was hit by hail termed by the Weather Bureau as large as golf balls. A funnel cloud dipped down near Columbia, Mo., but soon retreated into a towering thunderhead. No damage was reported.

Kearney, Neb., had one-inch hail flung by 60-mile winds. Farther east along the front Cincinnati, Ohio, was hit by heavy rain, with .52 inch measured in a single hour.

The cool air was eagerly awaited in New England and down the Atlantic Coast after a broiling day in the 90s over much of the region.

Newell Firemen Continue Drive

Plans for continuing the annual maintenance drive were outlined during a meeting of the Newell volunteer fire department Monday night at the station.

Additional sessions will be held today and Friday at 6:30 p. m. for canvassing residents of the Congo and State Route 66 area, along with those in the urban area who have not yet been contacted.

An application was received from Keith Wilson to join the department.

The auditing committee will audit the books Thursday at 6 p. m. at the station.

Earl Flesch presided.

Clark May Swing Over For Support Of Canal

Congressman Frank M. Clark, representing the 25th Congressional district of Pennsylvania, which includes Beaver, Butler and Lawrence counties, has said he will call a press conference in Beaver County some time in August to clarify his position on the controversial Lake Erie-Ohio River Canal.

Clark has indicated he may abandon his "neutrality" on the project and vote in favor of the canal.

Half of the $1 billion funds for the waterway would be spent in the three western Pennsylvania counties represented by Clark and a vote for the project would be a break with the rest of the Pennsylvania delegation. Pennsylvania's entire 12-member Republican delegation in Congress as well as all other western Pennsylvania congressmen have been opposed to the project.

Clark said he has launched a study to determine how much of a financial burden the canal will be to the various municipal taxing bodies and other governmental units along the route and has suggested that if all the local costs could be absorbed by the federal government and relocations could be handled without difficulty he could be in favor of the waterway.

He estimated that the cost to local governments in Beaver County would be $6 to $8 million, and about half that for those in Lawrence county.

Clark said he is "weighing all factors" and indicated the advantages and disadvantages to his district are pretty well balanced.

Senate Reduces Duty-Free Limits

WASHINGTON (AP)—American tourists in far away places with a yen to bring home such items as tablecloths from Dublin or glassware from Venice would have a reduced duty-free allowance under a bill passed by the Senate.

By a 61-31 vote Tuesday, it cut the duty-free allowance from the present $100 wholesale value to $100 retail value. The $100 wholesale value has been estimated as the equivalent of $167 retail value, so the reduction amounts to $67.

Like the House, the Senate didn't go as far as President Johnson wanted. In an effort to stem the flow of dollars abroad, wanted a duty-free limit of $50 retail.

The Treasury estimated the administration proposal would mean a balance of payments position improvement of about $100 million annually. It pegged the $100 retail limit savings at about $55 million.

Although House and Senate agree on a duty-free allowance figure, they differ on three other sections of the measure, thus sending it to a hurry-up conference.

Congo Marks Anniversary

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Congo celebrated its fifth birthday today with politicians crowing and the military marching. But the country's economy still is sickly.

Potentially it is one of Africa's richest countries, rich in industrial diamonds, copper, cobalt, uranium and other minerals. It has one of the world's great potentials for hydroelectric power, lush land and plentiful manpower.

But its economy is stagnant.

One reason is the lack of security. Rebellion has racked the vast central African territory since its first week of freedom in 1960.

Briton Says Red Premier Wants U.S. Friendship

MOSCOW (AP) — Reginald Maudling of the British Conservative party reported today after a meeting with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin that Kosygin "made it quite clear that he attached great importance to friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States and he regretted that in the present circumstances this was becoming more difficult."

"The present Soviet regime absolutely accepted the desirability of friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States," said Maudling, Conservative party foreign affairs expert.

Maudling told newsmen after an hour's meeting with Kosygin in the Kremlin that the premier took the view the Vietnamese war was caused by "American aggression" and that a solution required an American withdrawal.

Maudling was invited here by Soviet parliamentarians.

Workers Return At Cape Kennedy

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Printing and reproduction workers who staged a construction-strangling, six-day wildcat strike returned to their jobs today after agreeing to submit their dispute to arbitration.

Locals 780 and 666 of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employes (AFL-CIO) voted unanimously Tuesday night to end picketing.

New Appeal Made For Water Safety

LISBON — The Columbiana County Health Department has issued another appeal for area residents to learn and practice water safety.

Dr. Merle Singer, health commissioner, points out more than 6,000 drownings occur each year throughout the U.S. and reminds that many could be prevented if a few simple safety rules had been learned and obeyed.

He emphasized that learning to swim is one of the best ways to avoid water mishaps. "Parents should provide swimming instruction for their children by the time they are in the fourth grade. Such instructions are readily available from the American Red Cross, the YMCA and the YWCA. Prevent a tragedy by learning to swim."

EVEN GOOD swimmers should wear life jackets for water sports, Dr. Singer cautions. "Only Coast Guard - approved jackets should be used. This type covers the chest and comes around the back off the neck. It will support you in such a manner as to keep your face out of water. The bright orange color is easy to see against the blues, greens and browns of open water. Before leaving shore make sure there is an approved life preserver for every person aboard. A recently inspected fire extinguisher that will meet the Coast Guard requirements should always be aboard.

"A pole is one of the best rescue devices. Any material that can be pushed out to the person is satisfactory. Do not go in after him unless you are trained in life saving. A drowning person will grab you and take you under too. Farm ponds used for swimming should be equipped with a long pole, or a ring buoy, with 50 feet of quarter-inch rope attached.

"Keep an eye on the weather when a boat outing is anticipate This will avoid the experience of being on the water during a storm. Don't forget that boats and swimmers are prime targets for a bolt of lightning."

CONTINUING the safety appeal, the health commissioner urged that boating safety rules be learned and followed. Among those mentioned were:

"Keep to the right when meeting another boat. Avoid large vessels and sailboats. Sailboats have the right-of-way because they do not have the maneuverability of a power boat.

"Boats should not be raced at high speed, since they can be swamped by their own backwash. The marker buoys and the various distress signals should be learned. Know the safe capacity of your boat and keep everyone seated. Falls from boats account for a high percentage of the drownings."

When pulling a skier, stay in the ski zone, Dr. Singer warned. This zone, he explained, usually is marked by white floats.

"There is no place in water sports for horseplay or ignorance of basic safety practices—both of which cause accidents. And don't forget, alcohol and water only mix in a glass," he concluded.

Odd Facts

The early inhabitants of Easter Island built large open - air altars of excellent masonry. Sometime around 1100, many of the shrines fell into ruin. Reconstruction followed eventually, and the first giant statues appeared. Who carved the massive figures out of living volcanic stone and moved them to shrines on the coast remains a mystery.

Long before winter, the female grasshopper buries a mass of eggs wrapped in a protective gluelike coat. Warmth will not hatch the eggs unless they have first been frozen—nature's way of making sure a late warm spell won't bring out young grasshoppers to starve.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Excessive Supervision Can Be Bad

Any child at 4, 10 or 15, who has excessive fears of little bumps and injuries may seem to most older people as immature, even babyish. This child may annoy others by his bid for attention and pity and may indulge often in self-pity. The older the child indulging in frequent self-pity, the more miserable and unlikable he may become. Significant is the following letter from a mother in Ohio:

Dr. Garry Myers

"I find myself at a loss to know just how to react to a child who seems to seek undue attention, especially when she is hurt in any way. A stubbed toe can be as dramatically painful as a deep gash—if not more so. We dare not be too sympathetic, for when she dwells on a thing it swells to undue proportions.

—:—

"ON THE other hand, we want her to know that we are sympathetic and that we love her. Finding the middle line is extremely difficult. Our daughter is eleven, but we feel that the problem is more than a preteen one because of the past history of building up even minor mishaps.

"This same problem presents itself when working with teenagers. Occasionally one (who appears to be developing into a first-class hypocondriac) seems to seek more attention by dramatizing every scratch, ailment, or problem.

How much attention should be given to satisfy this apparent need, without encouraging more hypocondria tendencies later?"

My reply in part:

IT IS my guess that you have been so eager to be kind and sympathetic with your daughter that you have encouraged her in making a great ado over the slightest physical injury or imagined injury. Your fear that she might suppose you don't love her has driven you to feed her pleasure at attention over the slightest physical hurt she may face.

I hope you can see how her growing bid for attention over pain and fear of pain has made her less attractive to other children and adults. If you will think through this problem, you will steel yourself to be less concerned and to show less sympathy when she has slight physical injuries.

Fear not so much that she will suppose you don't love her, as that she will have fewer and fewer friends and admirers if she doesn't grow more hardened and less babyish about small bumps, cuts and scratches. Indeed, she will love you more in the future as you help her to prove she's not a baby but a person of her age.

WHEN she enters the teens, her growing reasonably hardened to injuries will prove increasingly important to her self-esteem and regard by other youths and adults.

From the time your child or mine was very young, we felt deep concern about him every time we thought he was suffering pain, was sick or hurt. Usually we betrayed our concern by the way we acted—by the way we breathed, by our voice and gestures.

How we suffered when his arm had to be jabbed with a needle for a "shot," when a cut had to have some stitches, when he needed surgical dressing or even simple first aid. What an ordeal for us if he had to have a tonsillectomy.

When in his first few years he got a bump, fell as he began walking or later skinned his hands and knees, we were inclined to grab him up, revealing as we did so our concern over how bad his injury might be. Not controlling our emotions then, we may easily have caused him to suppose he was badly hurt. His crying then intensified our fears and anxiety.

INDEED, our very lack of self-control can cause a child to grow more fearful of being hurt and more ready to play for our excessive attention.

But as we see a skilled nurse or physicain care for him when he is sick or injured, we may see reasons to be more stoic. Hard as it may be for us not to increase his fears of being hurt, we can see how important it is for us to let him learn to be stoic, too.

My bulletins, "When the Child Cries," "Fears in Children," and "Often Getting Hurt and Breaking Things," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Ohio Corn Crop Seen Good In Many Areas

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The condition of Ohio's corn crop is reported good in many areas but only fair in the central and southwestern districts, according to a U. S. Department of Agriculture report.

The report, in cooperation with the U. S. Weather Bureau and the Ohio Agricultural Extension Service, said last week was favorable for field work with showers occurring mainly over the northern third of the state aiding moisture supplies slightly. As of last Friday, 87 per cent of the soil moisture reports indicated the supply as short, 12 per cent as adequate, and 1 per cent as surplus.

About 96 per cent of the reports from the southern two-thirds of the state indicated short conditions and the remaining 4 per cent adequate.

Pittsburghers Buy Peter Pan Company

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—The Peter Pan Co., retail clothes cleaning firm, has been sold for an undisclosed sum to a group of Pittsburgh businessmen, headed by Stuart N. Leff.

When you are stuffing an eggplant, halve the vegetable lengthwise, then cut out the pulp in chunks leaving a shell that is about ¼-inch thick. The pulp can be cooked until soft and mixed with bread crumbs, milk, eggs, plus seasonings and liquid for the filling. The stuffed eggplant halves will need about ¾ hour baking in a moderate oven.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Excessive Supervision Can Be Bad

Any child at 4, 10 or 15, who has excessive fears of little bumps and injuries may seem to most older people as immature, even babyish. This child may annoy others by his bid for attention and pity and may indulge often in self-pity. The older the child indulging in frequent self-pity, the more miserable and unlikable he may become. Significant is the following letter from a mother in Ohio:

Dr. Garry Myers

"I find myself at a loss to know just how to react to a child who seems to seek undue attention, especially when she is hurt in any way. A stubbed toe can be as dramatically painful as a deep gash—if not more so. We dare not be too sympathetic, for when she dwells on a thing it swells to undue proportions.

—:—

"ON THE other hand, we want her to know that we are sympathetic and that we love her. Finding the middle line is extremely difficult. Our daughter is eleven, but we feel that the problem is more than a preteen one because of the past history of building up even minor mishaps.

"This same problem presents itself when working with teenagers. Occasionally one (who appears to be developing into a first-class hypocondriac) seems to seek more attention by dramatizing every scratch, ailment, or problem.

How much attention should be given to satisfy this apparent need, without encouraging more hypocondria tendencies later?"

My reply in part:

IT IS my guess that you have been so eager to be kind and sympathetic with your daughter that you have encouraged her in making a great ado over the slightest physical injury or imagined injury. Your fear that she might suppose you don't love her has driven you to feed her pleasure at attention over the slightest physical hurt she may face.

I hope you can see how her growing bid for attention over pain and fear of pain has made her less attractive to other children and adults. If you will think through this problem, you will steel yourself to be less concerned and to show less sympathy when she has slight physical injuries.

Fear not so much that she will suppose you don't love her, as that she will have fewer and fewer friends and admirers if she doesn't grow more hardened and less babyish about small bumps, cuts and scratches. Indeed, she will love you more in the future as you help her to prove she's not a baby but a person of her age.

WHEN she enters the teens, her growing reasonably hardened to injuries will prove increasingly important to her self-esteem and regard by other youths and adults.

From the time your child or mine was very young, we felt deep concern about him every time we thought he was suffering pain, was sick or hurt. Usually we betrayed our concern by the way we acted—by the way we breathed, by our voice and gestures.

How we suffered when his arm had to be jabbed with a needle for a "shot," when a cut had to have some stitches, when he needed surgical dressing or even simple first aid. What an ordeal for us if he had to have a tonsillectomy.

When in his first few years he got a bump, fell as he began walking or later skinned his hands and knees, we were inclined to grab him up, revealing as we did so our concern over how bad his injury might be. Not controlling our emotions then, we may easily have caused him to suppose he was badly hurt. His crying then intensified our fears and anxiety.

INDEED, our very lack of self-control can cause a child to grow more fearful of being hurt and more ready to play for our excessive attention.

But as we see a skilled nurse or physicain care for him when he is sick or injured, we may see reasons to be more stoic. Hard as it may be for us not to increase his fears of being hurt, we can see how important it is for us to let him learn to be stoic, too.

My bulletins, "When the Child Cries," "Fears in Children," and "Often Getting Hurt and Breaking Things," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Ohio Corn Crop Seen Good In Many Areas

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The condition of Ohio's corn crop is reported good in many areas but only fair in the central and southwestern districts, according to a U. S. Department of Agriculture report.

The report, in cooperation with the U. S. Weather Bureau and the Ohio Agricultural Extension Service, said last week was favorable for field work with showers occurring mainly over the northern third of the state aiding moisture supplies slightly. As of last Friday, 87 per cent of the soil moisture reports indicated the supply as short, 12 per cent as adequate, and 1 per cent as surplus.

About 96 per cent of the reports from the southern two-thirds of the state indicated short conditions and the remaining 4 per cent adequate.

Pittsburghers Buy Peter Pan Company

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—The Peter Pan Co., retail clothes cleaning firm, has been sold for an undisclosed sum to a group of Pittsburgh businessmen, headed by Stuart N. Leff.

When you are stuffing an eggplant, halve the vegetable lengthwise, then cut out the pulp in chunks leaving a shell that is about ¼-inch thick. The pulp can be cooked until soft and mixed with bread crumbs, milk, eggs, plus seasonings and liquid for the filling. The stuffed eggplant halves will need about ¾ hour baking in a moderate oven.

What's New in The SHOPS?
Wall-To-Wall—Take It With You

Carpet pieces lock together forming rug.

New, different . . . beautiful and practical . . . luxurious but not expensive. Carpet-Chex! Carpet-Chex is the modern way to beautiful long-wearing wall-to-wall carpeting. Carpet-Chex are 9x9 inch squares which you can fit together to make a rug any size you wish—and which you can take with you if you move. Carpet-Chex outlasts ordinary carpeting 3 to 1. Hidden areas are converted into carpet performance by rotating the squares from little used areas to heavy traffic spots. Cigarette burns, stains and damage are gone. Carpet-Chex are backed with sponge rubber, bonded to a rigid polystrene base and are designed to lock securely together.

74-A Automobiles For Rent

A A DEALER needs cars and pickups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, and it starts at $1,563 P.O.E. and up. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen versus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local representative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. — There goes another Volkswagen. Why does he drive a Volkswagen? Ask the man who owns one. Beaver Valley Volkswagen, 294 State St., Vanport, Beaver, Pa. Your factory dealer only 20 miles from East Liverpool, Ohio on Pa. Rt. 68. 775-4550.

P. S. PARTS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY or on tap within 24 hours. STARTING JUNE 20TH Service almost immediately. Call Mr. Charles Coen, your local man from Wellsville and our service manager or Mr. Earl King, parts manager for more information.

74-A Automobiles For Rent

A A DEALER needs cars and pickups. Must be exceptionally sharp. Will pay cash or if payments too high will trade back to older model — finance balances paid off. "Say," why not trade back to one of the most economical cars in the world for approximately $1 a day. You can trade your big costly operating car for a like new Volkswagen with operating on 1c per mile, 5.3 pints of the best oil, get up to 43.2 miles on regular gas, up to 100,000 miles on your first set of tires, also in replacing a new rear fender costs only $18.95, insurance is much, much less on a Volkswagen. Make us prove it. You eliminate water pump, radiator, anti-freeze, hose, clamps, drive shaft assembly. It's a rear end air cooled engine. You can almost trade year for year for the price of power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seat, and automatic on your big costly operating car. Volkswagen has the lowest depreciation, providing you keep it sharp, highest trade in value, and it starts at $1,563 P.O.E. and up. You pay less and save 50c out of every $1 when you drive a Volkswagen versus a big costly operating car. Why not join the millions of people who are driving the Volkswagen. There must be a reason. Come in, write, or call and talk to our courteous salesmen. SEE your local representative Mr. CHUCK RINESTINE. See it — Drive it — Just try it. — There goes another Volkswagen. Why does he drive a Volkswagen? Ask the man who owns one. Beaver Valley Volkswagen, 294 State St., Vanport, Beaver, Pa. Your factory dealer only 20 miles from East Liverpool, Ohio on Pa. Rt. 68. 775-4550.

P. S. PARTS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY or on tap within 24 hours. STARTING JUNE 20TH Service almost immediately. Call Mr. Charles Coen, your local man from Wellsville and our service manager or Mr. Earl King, parts manager for more information.

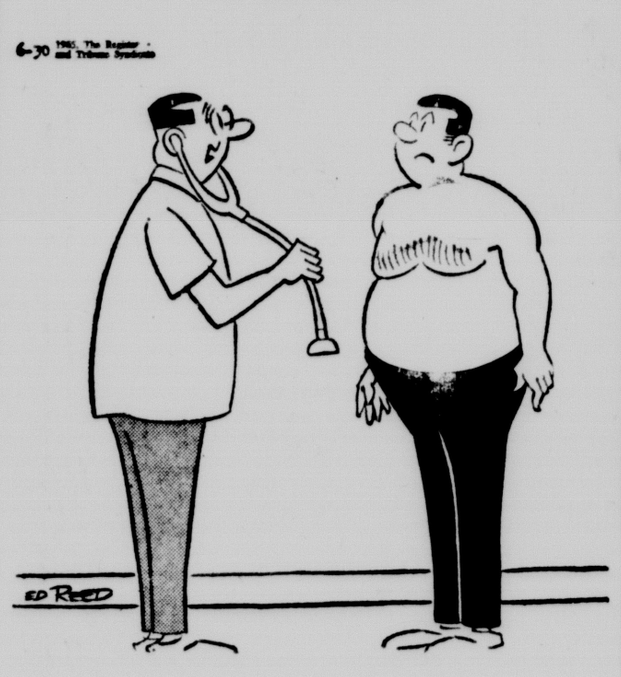
OFF THE RECORD



"Your weight, by the way, is just about normal for two healthy people."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1952, the McCarran-Walter Act was passed over President Harry Truman's veto. It codified the immigration laws and removed the absolute ban on Asiatic and Pacific immigrants.

On this date

In 1943, Winston Churchill vowed that the British forces would fight until the Japanese "submit or bite the dust."

Five years ago—The Belgian Congo became the Republic of Congo at ceremonies in Leopoldville.

Because heat and light destroy nutrients in milk, nutritionists recommend that milk — after being bought or delivered — be refrigerated at once. And don't let that milk container sit around on a kitchen counter when you have taken it out of the refrigerator; use the milk you need and return the container to the refrigerator.

Ordinarily, skim milk — because it has the fat removed— does not carry Vitamin A. But nowadays fluid skim milk, to which the A vitamin has been returned, is available.

Junior Editors Quiz on STARS

QUESTION: Do stars really have five points?

ANSWER: The five-pointed star is only a symbol or design, for the light of real stars, coming from enormous distances away, appears as dots of light on photographic plates. The star's light seems to twinkle as it comes through the different layers of the earth's atmosphere, and it is this twinkling which gives the effects of points. Such an appearance was noticed long ago. In the 600's B.C., a six-pointed star drawn with two interlocking triangles appeared as the symbol of Judaism, and star shapes were used by astrologers and magicians. In the days of knights in armour, stars became one of the heraldic symbols used to tell the knights apart. Exactly who designed our flag, the stars and stripes, is not known, but there is a legend that Washington wanted six-pointed stars on the new national emblem. As the story goes, Betsy Ross, a seamstress of Philadelphia, showed him that five-pointed stars would be simpler to make, and look just as well or better. To prove her point, she cut a five-pointed star with a single clip of her scissors. Then, according to the story, which may or may not be true, Washington was convinced and gave her the order to make the first official flag.
